Description: A female driver was arrested for driving under the influence following a motor vehicle collision while making a left-hand turn. Officers reported detecting alcohol on her breath and conducted field sobriety tests, including the walk-and-turn and one-leg stand tests. The driver admitted to consuming a margarita earlier in the evening. Her daughter was present in the vehicle at the time of the crash. After failing sobriety tests, she was taken into custody and issued summonses for DUI-related offenses. The incident was processed through municipal court, and the suspect was advised she would likely appear for her hearing via Zoom.
