Under the New Jersey Open Public Records Act, (OPRA), a Records Custodian must deny access to a person who has been convicted of an indictable offense in New Jersey, any other state, or the United States, and who is seeking government records containing personal information pertaining to the person's victim or the victim's family. This includes anonymous requests for said information. If you the requestor fit this criteria then you are not allowed by law (under penalty of N.J.S.A. 2C-28-3) to possess such records. You are also not allowed to provide such records to the victim's assailant thus circumventing the OPRA law.
