Complaint Investigation Narratives

Narrative Date 09/14/22 Narrative Author Moskwa, Julie

On 9/3/21, complainant informed OCHD about spoiled food items purchased at the above location. On 9/7/21, I arrived on site and walked to areas of store where alleged spoiled items are stored. Upon inspection, "meat" (beef, pork) was red and appeared fresh. Chicken was pink and also appeared fresh. The fish in the seafood market area appeared fresh, with no discoloration or foul odors. None of these products were past the posted expiration date, including eggs in the dairy section. Temperatures in cold holding cases for meat, chicken, seafood, and eggs were in compliance with Chapter 24 of NJ State Sanitary Code (41F or below). Temperatures measured 38F, 37F, 34F, and 38F per inspectors thermometer.

At time of investigation, no violations were observed regarding the nature of this complaint.

NO FURTHER ACTION REQUIRED BY THIS AGENCY AT THIS TIME.
