Dear Mayor and Council:

Please accept this letter as my formal resignation as Township Manager effective close of business on September 8, 2023.

It has been an honor and privilege to work alongside such a dedicated group of public servants as yourselves and with such a dedicated and committed Township staff. During these past four years, I believe we have made great strides in building partnerships with our residents, local businesses and other regional government entities. Even in the midst of a global pandemic, we truly remained "Evesham Strong."

It is my intention so be as accessible and helpful to the Township during the process of appointing a new Township Manager and during his/her transition. Again, I thank you for your support throughout my tenure in Evesham and wish you all nothing but continued success.

Respectfully,

Robert Corrales
Township Manager
