To Aneesh Kanathan,

We met with Mayor Veasy last friday pertaining to [REDACTED]'s progress and growth in the summer. We showed videos of [REDACTED] playing soccer in Lil Kicks, Piano, 2 x 1 week 8 hour classes, one in coding robots, the other in piloting a plane (no aide), and believe that [REDACTED] is ready for inclusion with an aide and 1 hour of Lindamood bell. Additionally he socialized with typical kids at functions playing soccer and cards. We initially placed this request on 8/18th with no reply. We understand the district has 20 days to reply, which would be 9/8th. School starts Sept 5th and would like [REDACTED] to have 1 hour of LMB as well as inclusion, as 30 mins isn't going to produce meaningful change for our son. We have stated our cases and know that Mayor Veasy has shared with you.

We know that decision is with Jennifer Bland, however I implore looking at the evidence, we give a shot for [REDACTED] to succeed. He has been in the restricted environment for 5 years and believe with support he can thrive as he did in the summer, with academics and social.

Today, we visited the new environment and saw another child pull down his pants in front of [REDACTED]. That is the behavior we want to minimize and is working against getting him in mainstream. We were told 3 years ago that [REDACTED] should be ready by grade 2 from Ginny his previous behavior specialist. I believe that time is now. If you could please consider and advocate based on the evidence to Mrs Jennifer Bland, would appreciate.

Thank you.
