NARRATIVE

On January 13, 2021, at 1540 hours, I, Det. J. Rader #210 attended the postmortem examination of Chris Rogers (DOB: 05/31/1999). The examination was conducted at Community Medical Center at the request of the Ocean County Medical Examiner's Office. The examination was conducted by Dr. Ragasa with the assistance of Tim Torres. Also on scene to assist with the investigation was Sheriff's Officer McCaffery of this office.

The decedent was observed to be contained within a white body bag sealed with tag #2440887 by myself on January 13, 2021 at 1206 hours. The decedent was observed to be a white male, 21 years of age with brown hair. The eyes were noted as brown in color. The decedent weighed approximately 207 pounds and measured approximately 68 inches in length. The decedent was clad in a tan jacket with red staining, a black vest, a black sweatshirt, a gray shirt, green boots, gray socks, black pants, a brown belt and black underwear. The decedent had a watch on his left wrist and an opal necklace around his neck. The watch and necklace was turned over to Community Medical Center Security Officer Brentes. The decedent had a wave tattoo on his left ribcage and an eagle tattoo on his right upper arm. The decedent had red staining on his face and ears. The decedent's hands and fingers were pruned. There was a circular wound under the decedent's chin with a red burn around it. There were three small tears above the wound. There was a protruding wound on the top of the decedent's head. There were bone fragments sticking out of the wound. An x-ray was requested by Dr. Ragasa of the decedent's head. The CD containing the x-ray pictures were collected (item #11) and submitted into evidence. After examination by Dr. Ragasa, he recovered a projectile from the wound on the top of the decedent's head. The projectile (item #12) was collected and submitted into evidence.

Photographs were taken by the undersigned throughout the examination and at the request of Dr. Ragasa for identification and documentation purposes. Inked fingerprints were obtained
