NARRATIVE

Patrol responded for a report of a male in the backyard of the callers residence. Upon arrival, contact was made with Scott Hardy. Throughout the incident, it was apparent that Scott was intoxicated. He advised that he was looking for his daughter Gabby. The homeowner, Orlando Ruiz, advised he has a daughter named Gabriella and knows Scott from the past when they used to live on Lexington Boulevard. Orlando advised that he hasn't spoken to Scott in some time and only wanted him sent on his way.

While Scott was talking with other patrol in the front yard, he became argumentative. This upset Orlando who began yelling as well. Following this, Orlando wished for Scott to be trespassed from his property. Scott was advised this and CAD was updated to indicate the same. Scott reluctantly vacated the area.

Due to Scotts behavior and history of being in unknown residential property backyards, I contacted mobile PESS. Due to Scott not having a home address, they advised to call them upon making contact with him again so they can respond out. NFA.
