Dear Requester,

Thank you for your OPRA request in which you requested access to all police reports and incident reports for 11 Nautilus Ave., for the last 3 years.

After careful review, there were reports deemed ineligible for release in accordance with two provisions of the New Jersey Open Public Records Act.

Firstly, N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1.1, due to the applicability of the domestic violence exception. Under the OPRA statute, certain records relating to domestic violence incidents are exempt from disclosure to protect the privacy and safety of the individuals involved. Since one or more requested records are related to a domestic violence matter, it falls under this exemption.

Also, one or more reports are not included under N.J.S.A. 47:1A-1 (the Open Public Records Act) and Governor McGreevey Executive Order No. 26, information containing a person's medical, psychiatric, or psychological history, diagnosis, treatment, or evaluation is generally considered exempt from disclosure under the law, meaning government agencies are not required to release such personal health information to the public.

Please be advised that this decision is made to safeguard the privacy rights of the parties involved and is consistent with the intent of the law to prevent the disclosure of sensitive and potentially harmful information in such cases.

If you have any questions or need further clarification, feel free to contact policerecords@barnegatpolice.us.

Thank you,
Barnegat Township Police Department
