Re: Request for Access to Public Records

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Borough of Sayreville ("Borough") Records Custodian received your Open Public Records Act ("OPRA") request on December 15, 2023. The Borough is responding to your request within seven (7) business days after receipt of your request as required by New Jersey law. See N.J.S.A. 47:1A-5.

For ease of reference, your OPRA request sought the following:

1. Names, job titles and job descriptions, start of employment date and salaries and accompanying photo of all employees of the Sayreville Library and Police Department for the year 2023.
2. Along with any and all disciplinary records on the individual's file.

Enclosed please find all records readily identified as responsive by the Borough. In response to the portion of your request for "any and all disciplinary records," please be advised that records potentially responsive to your request are exempt from disclosure pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10, which exempts employee personnel and pension records from "government records" that must be provided under OPRA. The statute provides that "[n]otwithstanding the provisions of [OPRA] or any other law to the contrary, the personnel or pension records of any individual in possession of a public agency . . . shall not be considered a government record and shall not be made available for public access . . ." N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10. Thus, under N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10, "personnel records are, by definition, not classified as government records at all." Kovalcik v. Somerset Cty. Prosecutor's Office, 206 N.J. 581, 5592 (2011).

N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10 provides exceptions to the exemption of personnel records, including "an individual's name, title, position, salary, payroll record, length of service, date of separation and the reason therefor, and the amount and type of any pension received shall be a government record.” However, disciplinary records are not an exception explicitly listed under OPRA. Therefore, your records request is denied.

In the event of a clarification or appeal, Borough reserves the right to raise any other ground for denial not raised in this response. The failure of the Borough to assert an exception or privilege at this time does not act as a waiver of any grounds for denial. Thank you for your professional courtesies and attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

Nicole L. Waranowicz
Deputy Municipal Clerk
