Requestor's Name: Marc Jellinek

Requestor's Address: N/A

Dear Marc Jellinek,

The East Brunswick Police Department received your Open Public Records Act (OPRA) request on December 4, 2023. The official Records Custodian, of the East Brunswick Police Department, received your OPRA request on December 5, 2023. As such, the seven (7) business day deadline to respond to your request is December 14, 2023. This response to your request is being provided to you on the 7th business day after the custodian's receipt of said request.

Your request has been assigned Request ID # 2023-417 for tracking purposes.

Your OPRA request sought access to the following:

Please release the audio record and any associated transcripts (should they exist) between Marc Jellinek (of Sayreville, NJ) to the person identifying themselves as "Dispatcher #1" on the non-emergency line ((732) 390-6900) at approximately 2:24pm on this date.

Response: Responsive government records are attached to this response. Please be advised there were no responsive records for the time you provided. However, we were able to locate what we believe to be the record you are seeking, with a timestamp of 2:43 pm. If this is not the record you are seeking, please let us know. There are no transcripts of this recording, and a custodian is not required to create a record in response to a request.

If your request for access to a government record has been denied or unfilled within the seven (7) business days required by law, you have a right to challenge the decision by the East Brunswick Police Department to deny access. At your option, you may either institute a proceeding in the Superior Court of New Jersey or file a complaint with the Government Records Council (GRC) by completing the Denial of Access Complaint Form. You may contact the GRC by toll-free telephone at 866-850-0511, by mail at P.O. Box 819, Trenton, NJ, 08625, by e-mail at xxx@xxx.xxxxx.xx.xx, or at their web site at www.state.nj.us/grc. The GRC can also answer other questions about the law. All questions regarding complaints filed in Superior Court should be directed to the Court Clerk in your County.

Regards,
