7. OFFICE OF THE MAYOR AND COUNCIL:

Mayor LaBarbiera

Newly renovated council chambers look great. Many great things going on in town, 4th of July parade, fireworks, newly completed traffic intersection at Midland and Farview. Doing it all without any increase in spending or increase in taxes. Utilities are healthy. Golf Course undergoing improvements without borrowing money. Surplus is flourishing. No compromises in services. Thanks to all for hard work. Congratulations to all the officers who were promoted and hired.

Councilman Amato

Congratulates Police Chief Ehrenberg on his appointment, Ken Ehrenberg Jr. on his acceptance to the Air Force Academy, and to all of those officers promoted and appointed. Congratulations to Freddie Hoffman and Erica DiPasquale as well. Congratulations to the Shade Tree and Parks Commission for their work done at the Memorial locations and at the Pool. Thanks to Chief Ehrenberg and the Police Dept. for sponsoring seasonal flowers for Veterans.

Councilwoman Bellinger

Late registration for Recreation summer and fall programs is continuing. Paramus Farmers' Market has begun, it is every Wednesday at Petruska Park between the months of June and July. Thank you to Paramus Sunrise Rotary for donating a 60 inch flat screen TV to the Senior Center and thank you to Mr. D'Arco for securing said donation. Thank you to the Substance Awareness Committee for sponsoring various events including the Relay for Life event. Congratulations to all Police officers promoted and appointed. Police Department Report for May - 892 calls for service, 65 criminal arrests, 791 motor vehicle summonses issued, 7,383 9-1-1 calls

Councilman Lagana

Congratulations to all honorees. Proud to work with the Mayor and Council on the budget. Thank you to all involved. Golf Course pro shop sales up $4,000 from May of last year. Junior Golf Camps available in July and August. Golf Course hosting New Jersey State Public Links Women's Championship

Councilman Nazziola

Free blood pressure checks available at the Health Department. Free skin cancer screenings for members of the Pool at the Municipal Pool as well.

Councilman Verile

Planning Board meeting to discuss Historical Preservation zoning ordinance, 4th of July Parade had over 575 participants, First ever Paramus Triathlon was a success

Councilwoman Warburton

Paramus Memorial Day parade and ceremonies were a great success, special thanks to all who attended and honored our veterans. The Veterans Affairs office dedication followed the parade, Thank you to Sam Casiello for coordinating the event. Pool Commission, Shade Tree and Parks Commission and DPW worked hard to get the Pool ready for the Summer season, Concession stand is running smoothly. Pool hosted its first Paramus Triathlon which was a great success. The pool will open for its regular summer hours starting Thursday, June 27th. The Library hosted an event which was a great success, which included many events such as crafts and storytelling. The event was well organized and attended by over

2,000 people. Thanks to the Library staff that made this event possible. Historical Preservation Commission continues to work hard to preserve Paramus' history. The HPC is trying to save a home that was previously marked for demolition at 206 Howland Ave. The home dates back to 1850. Thanks to the Borough Clerk's office and all the other departments that helped with the Historical Preservation mailing. The Rescue monument is coming along great. It will be lighted around the clock. Special thanks to Diane Marichal for her hard work. Rescue report – 37 calls and 278 man hours logged for the month of May
