Re: Open Public Records Act Request

Dear Ms. Aziz:

The Board is in receipt of your Open Public Records Act request, which sought "Copy of letter from State of NJ which approved Chari Chanley's Acting Superintendent contract for the period November 10, 2021 – February 10, 2022."

"Hourly billing rate of Vito Gagliardi and other attorneys from the firm Porzio, Bromberg, Newman PC that provide legal services to the Monroe Township Board of Education."

"All Rowan University course registration records that Chari Chanley submitted to the Monroe Township Board of Education."

Request No. 1: Your request is granted. Attached hereto please find responsive records.

Request No. 2: Your request is granted. Attached hereto please find responsive records.

Request No. 3: Your request is denied under OPRA's personnel records exception. N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10 (stating that with limited exceptions, "the personnel or pension records of any individual in the possession of a public agency ... shall not be considered a government record and shall not be made available for public access").

There is no fee associated with the production of the enclosed records to you because they are being provided to you by e-mail only, as directed in your OPRA request.

If you have any questions, please contact me.

Very truly yours,

Reeshemah Zielinski
