387-space parking lot opens in Sec

Mayor Gonnelli welcomed the new addition to the Secaucus Junction

By Daniel Israel
Staff Writer

More parking spaces are being added in Hudson County and no, you're not dreaming.

Edison ParkFast has opened a 387-space parking lot outside the train station at Secaucus Junction at 650 Paul Amico Way.

Edison ParkFast operates more than 10,000 spaces in parking lots and garages across northern Jersey and New York City. Owned by Edison Properties, a local development company, Edison ParkFast announced the grand opening of the new commuter parking lot on Feb. 18.

"The new parking lot is a welcome addition to the Secaucus Junction area," said Secaucus Mayor Michael Gonnelli. "It is an added convenience for all commuters, and the special discounts offered to Secaucus residents will make it even better for us."

According to ParkFast, the move was necessary because the demand for parking continues to grow at the Secaucus Junction station, a major NJ Transit commuter hub. The station is an attractive location for commuters to drive to and take the train to get to work in Manhattan, because of the short, 15-minute train ride to Penn Station.

Shaun Kirby, President of Edison ParkFast, said the parking lot addition comes in response to the large number of daily commuters who use

Fight kids cancer in Hoboken

The St. Baldrick's Foundation will host its next Hoboken fundraising event - "Kick Kids' Cancer and Celebrate Life" - on March 14, from 3 to 6 p.m., at Northern Soul Kitchen & Bar, 700 First St.

Hoboken residents can register to get their heads shaved, accumulating donations through sponsors before March 14. Proceeds go to children suffering from cancer.

Attendees, volunteers, shavees, or donors may visit <https://www.stbaldricks.org/events/NorthernSoul2020> or email Jim O'Brien at jobinhk@aol.com.

Teacher again charged with alleged sexual assault

On Feb. 21, members of the Hudson County Prosecutor's Office (HCPO) arrested Hoboken resident Francisco Realpe, 43, on a charge that he allegedly sexually assaulted a 17-year old female student while a teacher in Union City.

According to a press release from the HCPO, the new charge stems from an incident that occurred in 2004 while Realpe was a teacher at Union Hill High School.

On Feb. 22, Realpe was placed on supervised release.

He was previously arrested on Feb. 3, on charges involving the alleged sexual assault of a 17-year-old female student at Dickinson High School in Jersey City in November 2019.

The above charges are merely accusations, and the defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

The new, gated parking lot includes full camera coverage, an on-site attendant during all operating hours, and a newly constructed sidewalk to the Secaucus Junction station.

Edison ParkFast also owns and operates a separate 1,094-space lot outside the same Secaucus station.

"This expansion of our parking business comes at a critical time because New Jersey commuters continue to seek efficient ways to get into New York City, while local residents also look for alternatives to driving into midtown Manhattan," said Jon Dario, Chief Operating Officer of Edison Properties.

The opening of the new lot follows a multi-year approval process that included Hudson County, the Meadowlands Commission, New Jersey Sports and Exhibition Authority, and other public entities.

According to Edison ParkFast, Edison Properties acquired the property in 2016. Prior to redevelopment, the lot was the former home of a Goya manufacturing plant.

Potential commuters can reserve a spot at the lot or learn more about parking at the location online at ParkFast.com or by calling 1-888-PARK-FAST.

Via purple vans are New Jersey's first on-demand city-run transit system be introduced when riders can book a ride to or from the Central Zone, including Downtown and Journal Square at a flat rate of $2.

Riders can book a ride anywhere within the outer service zone starting at $2 plus $0.50 per mile.

The service will operate Monday through Friday from 6 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Riders can also request a wheelchair accessible vehicle in-app or on the phone.

To get started, download the Via app from the App Store or Google Play store, then follow the signup steps. You'll be asked to enter your personal info, payment info, and a promo code if you have one.

Currently, flyers with promo codes are being handed out across the city at light rail stops.

Riders who use the app to book a ride can pay in the app. Those who call the dedicated phone line can pay with credit, debit, or prepaid card. No cash is being accepted at this time.

Questions regarding the newly launched service can be sent to support-jerseycity@ride-withvia.com.
