145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle 1 was traveling east on Route 88 and struck a pot hole off the roadway to the right while slowing to turn into the parking lot of Camp Mall.

Driver 1 stated he was traveling east on Route 88 and moved to the right into the shoulder to turn into the parking lot for camp mall when he struck a pot hole. Driver 1 stated he was unable to see the pot hole prior to hitting it. Driver 1 showed me scratches on his front and rear passenger side wheels as a result of the pot hole. The rear passenger tire was also beginning to lose air. Driver 1 stated he had AAA and that he would make arrangements to remove the vehicle. The vehicle was left in a parking spot in the Camp Mall parking lot.

I observed the pot hole off the roadway and it appeared to be past the boundary of Route 88 where Route 88 and the easements for the businesses meet. Due to the heavy rain, the pot hole was filled with water and it appeared to be only a puddle as the pot hole was not visible. Investigation revealed that the cause of the crash was driver 1 moving into the shoulder to make a right hand turn along with the large amount of water over the pot hole causing driver 1 to not see it.
