145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle 2 stopped in traffic for the red traffic light on Route 88 eastbound, approaching Jack Martin Boulevard. Driver 1 stopped directly behind Vehicle 2.

Driver 2 stated he was stopped for the red light when he was suddenly struck from behind by Vehicle 1.

Driver 2 looked into his rearview mirror and saw Driver 1 looking at him, then begin to mess with her hair.

Driver 2 stated he watched her for a few more moments and she did not exit her vehicle. Driver 2 stated the light changed to green and he began to drive down the road. Driver 2 was watching Vehicle 1 and felt she was staying further back than someone normally would. Driver 2 drove about a half mile down the road and pulled onto the shoulder of Route 88. Vehicle 1 continued to drive past him and he immediately pulled out behind her.

Driver 2 stated he began to follow Vehicle 1, which then made a left onto Old Squan Road and sped off.

I was able to contact Driver 1 and she stated she was stopped on Route 88 behind Vehicle 1, waiting for the traffic light to change. Driver 1 stated she was fixing her hair when she realized her vehicle was rolling. She then slammed on her brakes, causing her vehicle to stop abruptly. Driver 1 stated she was extremely close to

145 Crash Description

Vehicle 2, but did not believe she had struck it. She could see Driver 1 looking at her, but he did not motion to her or exit his vehicle. The traffic light changed and she continued driving behind Vehicle 2. Driver 1 stated as they came to the area of Laurel Square shopping center, Vehicle 2 pulled off onto the shoulder of the roadway. Driver 1 then drove past him and continued on her way to work.

Vehicle 1 had no visible damage to the front end and vehicle 2 had a small dent and chipped paint, which appeared to be caused by the screw holding the front license plate of Vehicle 1.
