145. Crash Description/Narrative

A single car motor vehicle crash occurred on Jack Martin Blvd South, approximately 200 feet north of Frank Neri

Dr. The single vehicle struck a fire hydrant (#29484) in front of 455 Jack Martin Blvd.

Driver 1 provided the following information in regards to this crash:

She was originally traveling north bound on Jack Martin Blvd to go to the hospital (425 Jack Martin Blvd). She accidentally missed the turn into the hospital. Upon passing the entrance, she made a U-turn just up the road by 458 Jack Martin Blvd. She took the U-turn too wide and struck a fire hydrant in front of 455 Jack Martin Blvd.

She proceeded to continue driving her car to the hospital parking lot where she safely parked the vehicle.

Vehicle 1 sustained disabling damage to the passenger side front bumper and wheel. The vehicle was safely parked and driver 1 set up a private tow to take the vehicle. Driver 1 stated she was uninjured as a result of the crash.

Driver 1 is at fault for improper turning and driver inattention.
