135 Crash Description

Vehicle #1 center lane east bound Rt. 70 in the area of 1872 Rt. 88 going straight ahead struck median. Driver#1 failed to control vehicle and collided with median. Investigation revealed that vehicle was in the center lane crossed left lane and struck median and continued while in contact with median for approximately 84'.

There was one passenger, Diana Boback in the vehicle who originally stated that she was operating the vehicle. It was determined (see operations report 2438-12) Shea Hanley was the operator of the vehicle at the time of the crash. Driver #1 statement is that he was not operating the vehicle.

Hanley and Boback were taken to the Ocean Medical Center Emergency Room for evaluation. Hanley was evaluated to have swelling on the left side of his face. Boback was evaluated to have a fractured Tibia and pain on the right side of her lower chest.

There were scratches and tire marks on the median. Dispatch notified the NJ Department of Transportation of the crash for it to be inspected for structural damage.

Driver #1 was issued the following summonses:
 1506-T-120715, 39:4-97, Careless Driving.
 1506-T-120716, 39:4-88B, Failure to maintain Lane.
 1506-T-120717, 39:3-40, Driving While License Suspended.
