135 Crash Description

An Employee of the BTMUA stated that another employee observed a red pick up truck backing up and strike a light pole and then flee the area. The employee followed the vehicle and described it as a red pick up truck NJ Reg ZDW60Z. The only visible damage to the light pole was that paint was removed by the collision.

I contacted the driver of V1 via phone, the driver Tracy Hurley stated that she thought that she had only made contact with the curb, and was unaware that she had made contact with the light pole.
