145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle two was stopped at a posted stop sign, exiting 425 Jack Martin Blvd onto Rt 88. Vehicle one was traveling toward Rt 88 via the exit from 425 Jack Martin Blvd. Driver one began to slow down, but was distracted by sun glare. Vehicle one struck vehicle two in the rear bumper with the front bumper of vehicle one. Driver one stated that he could not see because of the sun when he struck vehicle two. Driver two advised vehicle two was stopped waiting for traffic when vehicle one struck his vehicle. Both drivers advised they are not injured and refused medical attention. I observed the front bumper of vehicle one was dented on the passenger side and partially dislodged. Vehicle two sustained a small scratch and rub marks to the rear, driver's side bumper. After speaking with all involved parties and observing the damage to both vehicles I determined that driver one was at fault for the motor vehicle accident. Driver one was issued summons E21-001915 for careless driving. Both vehicles were driven from the scene.
