145 Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle 2 was traveling north on Rt 166 crossing over the intersection of Old Freehold Rd. Pedestrian was walking east crossing over Rt 166 when vehicle traffic on Rt 166 had the right of way. Pedestrian was also jaywalking across the roadway wearing dark colored clothing. Hindering the vision of Driver 2. Driver 2 fled the scene prior to police arrival. Vehicle 2 is described as a dark colored SUV driven by an elderly male.

Pedestrian who was visibly under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs stated he was crossing the street when the Vehicle struck him. Pedestrian complained of pain to his left ankle. An obvious deformity was present. TR EMS responded and transported him to CMC for further treatment.

Witness: Candice Capone(732-608-3018) stated she observed the Pedestrian walk into the middle of the roadway when he did not have the right of way. Ms. Capone further stated that the operator of Vehicle 2 stopped and stated "this isn't my fault" to which she stated "you're right it's not" only then to have Vehicle 2 leave the scene. Ms. Capone was unable to provide any further description of Vehicle 2 other then what was described above.

Based on my investigation, Pedestrian illegally crossed the roadway and is at fault for the collision. A search of the area for Vehicle 2 yielded negative results. Nothing further at this time.
