145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle 1 traveling southbound through the parking lot of Ocean County Family Care, 2125 Route 88.

Driver 1 reported the following: He was driving through the parking lot looking for the doctor's office and could not find the office he was looking for. As he slowly drove southbound through the parking lot, he was looking at the building, attempting to locate the office. He stated he was looking at the building when he struck the concrete based street light.

The impact caused damage to the driver's side front end of Vehicle 1 and the street light was pushed about 2 or 3 inches, causing it to lean. The office staff was advised of the accident and to have someone check out the street light.
