145. Crash Description/Narrative

On 5/31/19 at 1333 I was on patrol traveling west on Rt 70 in the area of Brick Blvd. when I observed two vehicles on the shoulder with their emergency flashers on. I stopped and inquired what was going on and they stated they were in an accident. Both drivers denied any injury and did not wish first aid.

Driver vehicle 1 stated that she was proceeding west on Rt 70 in the left lane when an unknown vehicle made a sudden lane changed from the right lane to get over to the turning lane. The vehicle in front of her braked hard so not to strike the vehicle. Driver vehicle 1 braked hard but believed she was going to strike the rear of the vehicle in front of her so she swerved to the right. When she swerved into the right lane she came into contact with vehicle 2 causing a small scratch to vehicle 2's left rear quarter panel and vehicle 1 had a small dent on its front right quarter panel.

Driver vehicle 2 stated that she was proceeding west on Rt. 70 in the right lane when she was struck by vehicle 1
