145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle 1 traveling southbound on Askin Road, approaching First Street. Driver 1 stated he was shopping in Walmart when he began to feel dizzy and weak. He walked out to his vehicle and after sitting inside for a couple of minutes he began to feel better and started to drive home. Driver 1 stated the last thing he remembered was heading towards the traffic light of Route 70. Driver 1 was complaining of tingling in his lips and hands.

He does not remember driving onto Askin Road or leaving the roadway and striking the chain link fence on the east side of the roadway. Vehicle 1 had minor damage to the driver's side. Driver 1 spoke with Brick Police EMS, was alert and orientated. He refused any further medical treatment at the scene and was transported to his personal doctor by his wife.
