145. Crash Description/Narrative

I was dispatched to 425 Jack Martin Blvd (Ocean County Medical Center) second level of the parking garage for a motor vehicle crash.

Upon arrival, I was flagged down by Ocean Medical Center Security who advised one of the hospital employee's informed him a silver color SUV hit a parked red color SUV on the second level of the parking garage near parking area 2A. Hospital security was able to locate the driver of vehicle #1, and had him return back to his vehicle that was parked on the ramp to the third level of the parking garage.

I located vehicle #2 that was legally parked on the second level of the parking garage and was able to have hospital security page the owner of vehicle #2 and have him return to his vehicle.

I returned back to driver #1 and he stated that he was attempting to park next to vehicle #2 but decided he rather attempt to find a larger parking spot. Therefore he proceeded to the third level and found a parking spot to park his vehicle. I asked him if he was aware that he struck the rear of vehicle #2 while attempting to park the first time. He said he thought he might have bumped the rear bumper of vehicle #2 but did not see any damage so he did not report it. I observed fresh damage to the front right bumper of vehicle #1 specifically red paint markings matching vehicle #2.

Driver #1 informed me that he just started a new medication for a heart condition and he believes he is having a negative reaction to it. Driver #1 said he just went into the hospital to speak with his wife who is a nurse and she can confirm the new medication he is on. His wife responded and confirmed driver #1 in fact is on a new medication and she is concerned he is having a negative reaction. She took responsibility of the vehicle and stated she will have driver #1 evaluated by his doctor.

The owner of vehicle #2 responded to the scene and confirmed that the damage to his left rear bumper was not there before he parked his vehicle to go in the hospital.

Both parties were advised of proper complaint procedures.
