145. Crash Description/Narrative

Vehicle #1 westbound State Highway 88 collided with vehicle #2. Vehicle #2 eastbound State Highway 88. stopped in the roadway after striking utility pole #JC283BK (See case #63744-18). Vehicle #3 eastbound State Highway 88, parked, was struck by vehicle # 2 after it was set in motion by vehicle #1. Driver #1 and passenger #1 stated that they did not have any injuries. Driver #2, who was sitting in the passenger seat at the time of the crash stated that he was not injured. I observed a laceration on his head and he did not appear to understand my questions about his medical condition. Driver #2 was assessed by First Aid and transported to Jersey Shore Medical Center for his injuries. Driver #1 stated that he observed vehicles stopped in the eastbound lane and was looking at them when he struck vehicle #2. Driver #2 was unable to make a statement before being transported to the hospital. Driver #1 failed to observe that vehicle #2 was partially in the westbound lane because he was looking at the vehicles stopped in the eastbound lane and collided with vehicle #2. cell phone that had its light on. When he realized that vehicle #1 was not going to stop he moved off the roadway and observed vehicle #1 strike vehicle #2. When vehicle #2 was struck it was set in motion and struck vehicle #3. Vehicle #3 had rearward facing white strobe lights that were energized at the time of the crash.

Jocelyn Dominy, passenger of vehicle #3 stated that she exited the vehicle after it was parked in the roadway to see if driver #2 was ok. She observed Driver #2 to be unconscious and in the passenger seat with his feet extending onto the driver's seat, she was banging on the windows and yelling to him because all of the doors were locked. She observed vehicle #1 in the westbound lane and attempted to gain the attention of driver #1 by waving her cell phone that had its light on. When she realized that vehicle #1 was not going to stop she moved off the roadway and observed vehicle #1 strike vehicle #2 and vehicle #2 collided with vehicle #3.

While responding to the crash with vehicle #1 striking the utility pole (Case #63744-18) I observed vehicle #3 and vehicle #2 in the roadway. I observed four people in the area their attention was oriented eastbound, they were yelling and waving their arms. All four people quickly left the roadway and I observed vehicle #1 strike vehicle #2. vehicle #2 was set in motion and struck vehicle #3. When I approached vehicle #2 I was informed that the driver of vehicle #2 was unconscious. I observed a vehicle parked approximately twenty-five feet in front of vehicle #2 in the eastbound lane and there was a female subject standing near it in the westbound lane. I instructed her to get out of the street, she entered the vehicle and left the scene. I struck the rear driver's side window with a glass break device because all of the doors were locked. After I struck the window three times without it breaking I observed driver #2 attempting to open the driver's door. Driver #2 unlocked the door and I opened the door to assess his medical condition. Driver #2 was disoriented and was not answering my questions about the injuries that I observed on his head. When asked what happened driver #2 stated "I was driving in Manchester".

Norris and Lutz completed a Motor Vehicle crash Witness Statement Form. Lutz, Dominy, and Norris all stated that vehicle #2 was partially in the westbound lane before being struck by vehicle #1. Dominy and Lutz stated that no one exited vehicle #2 prior to my arrival and the vehicle I observed leaving with the unidentified female was not involved in either of the crashes, they believe she stopped to help. Driver #1 was taken into custody by Ptl. DeLuca #276 for Driving Under the Influence (See Ptl. DeLuca's report Case #63745-18) Driver #2 was taken into custody by Ptl.
