Dear David:
All Middlesex County
Communication inquiries go through our Communications Department at middlesex.communications@c o.middlesex.nj.us.
I hope this helps!
Nancy

Only in the sense that 20 county clerks do it differently.

Tue, Nov 23, 3:59 PM

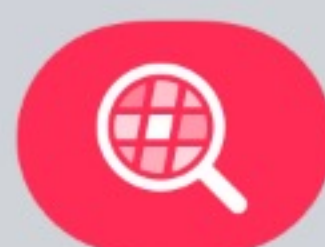

Do what differently?

Tue, Nov 23, 5:29 PM

Unfortunately, you're the only county clerk who wont take my call.

One question is unrelated to Middlesex County and it would be inappropriate to go through them. Also, as indicated previously, I do not give my questions in advance to a spokesperson. I'm not sure why you won't just answer the phone.

Please direct me to the county policy that prohibits elected officials from responding. Also, respectfully, my policy is to deal directly with elected officials. How do we adjudicate competing policies?

Wed, Apr 13, 9:09 AM

Any chance you will leave today and not cut it close tomorrow?

Thu, Apr 14, 11:59 AM

Are you resigning?

Thu, Apr 14, 4:15 PM

I tried you at your office but for some reason it was closed at 4:13 pm. Please call me.

My understanding is that Primary ballots did not begin arriving in parts of Middlesex until yesterday. Seeking comment from you on the delay. Thank you.

Seeking answer to this question to run a story today. Public confidence in elections, and in their election officials, is hugely important, so I'm hoping to hear back from you.
