Dear Parents -

Mrs. Giblin and I would like to invite you to a discussion with us tomorrow morning at 9:00.

As we continue to work through information being shared with the community, we feel it is important to discuss the position of the Board and school administration.

We hope you can join us.

SLBOE APPROVED COMMUNICATIONS

At the Board of Education Special Meeting of Friday, May 10, 2024, questions were asked by members of the public.
This is to clarify for all as follows:

1. Any letter communication that is distributed by the school or district will always be written on letter headed paper, and will always be signed by an administrator.
2. The Board of Education does not permit any communications indicating protected personal records, or student names (with the exception of noting commendation).
3. The Board of Education does not engage in discussion pertaining to any specific student during any public meeting.
4. With regard to the status of any investigation into alleged Harassment, Intimidation, or Bullying (HIB) the Board of Education only reports findings as substantiated or not substantiated, and only after the entire process is complete.
5. The Board of Education does not distribute nor permit the use of personal email addresses for personal gain or editorializing.
