Re: OPRA Request

Dear Mr. Paff:

The Office of Administrative Law ("OAL") received your government record request on May 18, 2023. You requested:

BACKGROUND:

Cape May County Superior Court Judge Pickering's March 31, 2021 Order in the case of John Davis v. City of Wildwood, Docket No. CPM-L-353-20 dismissed Davis' CEPA action against the City but permitted the case to be reinstated pending completion of disciplinary charges filed in the Office of Administrative Law (OAL).

1. The petition, appeal or other document that initiated Davis' contest of the disciplinary charges filed against him.
2. All opinions issued by an ALJ in this case.
3. If a trial or final hearing has been scheduled, please provide me the notice to the parties that indicates this. (I'm trying to gauge when I should file my follow-up OPRA request in the event that the case is still open.)

In response to number one of your request, it is denied pursuant to N.J.S.A. 47:1A-10 and N.J.A.C. 4A1-2.2(c)1, all materials in an appeal file are not public record. In response to number two, responsive records are attached. In response to number three, a final hearing has not yet been scheduled in this matter. I suggest you check back in August.

Regards,

/s/Candice G. Hendricks
