Ok so I checked and I have two individuals that have lived at that address, but neither of them have incidents that occurred at the actual address itself. They listed that address as their address when they go in trouble on other incidents. And that includes the Newton PD entries in Spillman. None of them actually occurred at the residence.

Good morning hope you had a great 4th of July!

We received an Opra request for records 2010 to present for:

19 Church Street, Newton, New Jersey.

I got a summary of all records we have in our system. Would you be able to check what is in Spillman. A summary report, if you can do that, is just fine.

Thanks let me know.

NARRATIVE	11/24/2018 17:39	Patrols arrived and met with the victim, Phoenix, who indicated that she was assaulted by her ex-boyfriend, Lugo, specifically by he choking her and stating that he was going to kill her. Phoenix also alleged that when she tried to call the police, Lugo took the phone from her hand, threw it on the ground and stomped on it, causing it to break. Phoenix had redness around her neck and a complaint of pain, however declined EMS at the scene. The assault was witnessed by several bystanders who confirmed Phoenix's story. Lugo had left the scene prior to our arrival.	jflanagan

Lugo was located at McDonalds and taken into custody. He was transported to police headquarters and a digitally recorded interview was conducted and he admitted to the assault. A.P. Rachelle Jones of the Sussex County Prosecutors Office was contacted and apprised of the incident. She indicated that Lugo should be charged on a warrant for 2c:12-1B(13), 2C :12-3B and 2C:17-3A. Judge James Sloan was contacted and issued the warrant. Lugo was processed, photographed, fingerprinted and served with the warrant and lodged in the Sussex County Jail. Phoenix was cleared from NMC and transported back to police headquarters for a TRO application. Same was granted by Judge Sloan. Lugo was served in the Sussex County Jail by the SCSD.

All required checks were conducted. See all related reports.

NARRATIVE		07/19/2019 17:04	Christina Coolidge came to police headquarters to speak to an officer because she feels that she is facing "housing discrimination". Coolidge said that there have been multiple incidents where she felt she is being "discriminated" against and has been feeling very uneasy recently. The most recent incidents she claimed happened were last night and then earlier today. Coolidge is currently staying at Family Promise (19 Church St) and she claimed that another female resident had a male over to eat with her, possibly the resident's son, but Coolidge wasn't sure. She said that this male made "sexual innuendos" towards here by allegedly stating "how big he	JZAPPA

Coolidge feels that Family Promise is setting her up so they can ultimately kick her out. She claimed to have other open lawsuits with other housing services as well. I asked her for any contact information of someone at Family Promise that I could speak with, but she wished that this only be documented and that I do not speak to any one.

I advised her that this would be documented as requested and provided her with the case number. I also suggested that she speaking with managers/directors at family Promise regarding her allegations. No further action.

ADDITIONAL NARRATIVE (By jflanagan on May 20 2008 6:30PM): Patrols arrived at 19 Church Street and met with Lee and Murphy, who reported that they were just with a female named Peirano, who is a client that just started working with Interfaith in Warren County. Lee indicated that Peirano recently lost her apartment in Allamuchy to a fire and her child was taken away and custody given to her mother. Lee stated that Peirano seemed distraught and had a history of depression and is currently under the care of Dr. Sarnier in Newton Memorial Hospital Mental Health. Peirano was referred to Interfaith in Sussex County by her clinician to seek placement and shelter due to becoming homeless recently. Lee stated that Peirano became upset over the ongoing issues and during the heat of the moment stated that she was going to "drive her car into a tree", and then she left the area. This statement concerned Lee and Murphy and prompted them to call Mental Health, which then Mental Health told them to call the police. Patrols spoke to Lee and Murphy and asked if they felt that the statement that Peirano made was genuine and they both indicated that they felt that she would not harm herself, because as Peirano was leaving, she indicated to Lee and Murphy that she was going to find a place to stay for the night and then go seek counseling on 05/21/2008 in the a.m. Patrols then asked if they felt that Peirano should be entered as a missing persons and they stated that they did not want to enter her, only to check on her well-being. A SPEN Broadcast was sent out to surrounding towns with her and her vehicle information and the NJSP Hope Barracks were requested to check her last address. NJSP called to report that they checked her last address in Allamuchy, which was negative due to the building being uninhabitable because of the fire. Patrols also checked the surrounding areas for Peirano which were also negative. If Peirano is located NPD is to contact Lee or Murphy and advise of her well being.

ADDITIONAL NARRATIVE (By jflanagan on Sep 8 2008 12:18PM): Patrols responded and met with Murphy, who indicated that it appeared that someone broke into the business. Patrols noted the interior doors forced open and the locks broken. Patrols checked the interior of the building and it was clear of any subjects still inside. The main office door was forced in, breaking the door jamb and molding, and the actor(s) went into the office closet and removed cash, 30-40 Shoprite gift cards, 20-30 Wal-Mart gift cards, a credit card, a Wal-Mart credit card, and a Staples credit card. Murphy contacted all of the credit card companies and there was no activity on any of the cards. Murphy indicated that she was the last one at the business on 09/05/2008 at 4:30 pm, and no one should have been inside during the weekend. Det. Muller responded and processed the scene. Patrol responded to both Shoprite and Wal-Mart and alerted the store management to the theft and to watch for the stolen cards to be used, and if they are used to contact this agency. See invest for further details.
