Subject: Tenant B8

Morning,

I have been calling the office since 9a and noone has answered. I am trying to get this issue with the tenant in B8 resolved. She called the police yesterday because again i asked her to move her things from the downstairs clean storage area. She damaged the back wheel of my daughter's bike pulling it in and out to store her things behind it. The police kindly helped her take her things upstairs but I am still waiting to here something from housing. I invited Michelle to my meeting with the social worker today at 11a (I made this meeting 2 weeks ago for help with my daughter school and my Medicare but to hopefully solve the issue i invited her to come) but now the social worker isn't in. I am doing my best to stay calm even when she cursed and name called in front of the kids but it needs to be resolved ASAP before the situation explodes

Candee
