State Of New Jersey complaining of defendant, states as follows:

1. On March 19, 2014, Christopher Cason, defendant
 (name of person being sued)

(Summarize what happened that resulted in your claim against the defendant. Use additional pages if necessary.)

Initiated a pull over in Eatontown that would turn Marya's life upside down. Marya was accused of speeding and was issued a citation. Shortly after Marya's father was pulled over by Christopher Cason for speeding. Marya and her father, Denard Trapp, filed to consolidate their cases. Prior to these events with Marya and her father Denard Trapp, Christopher Cason had issues with Marya's brother, Shawn Trapp, in which Shawn filed a complaint with internal affairs against Christopher Cason for entering Shawn's house without his consent or a warrant as well as Christopher Cason violated 2C:1-4(b) and/or Federal Rule Title 18 U.S.C. 1623 when he presented false declaration to a grand jury during an indictment involving Shawn where Christopher Cason used a document that he knew contained or should have known it contained false information. Shawn filed charges against Christopher Cason for violation of false declaration. The pull over involving Marya Trapp and Denard Trapp seemed to be retaliation from Christopher Cason, because of Shawn's complaints in which the internal affairs complaint was sustained which acknowledged Christopher Cason violated Eatontown Police Policies and procedure. Marya filed several discovery request with Sean Kean acting prosecutor as well as notified Richard B. Thompson of said requests for discovery, requesting for all discovery pursuant to Rules governing the court 7:7-7, all discovery regarding the stalker radar gun pursuant to STATE v. JOHN GREEN, as well as all complaints filed against Christopher Cason. The following discovery request was never turned over. Pursuant to Rule 7:7-7(g) the prosecutor has 10 days to turn over discovery this was not done, which violated Marya due process right.

Rule 7:7-7(g) was not enforced by the presiding Judge Richard B. Thompson although the request was brought before him violating his Code of Judicial Conduct. On September 11, 2014 during pretrial conference, which the case was not mark trial, Marya notified Sean Kean that she needed to be in school for an final exam and that discovery has not been fulfilled and since the case been consolidated that Marya's father, Denard Trapp, can accept discovery on her behalf. Initially Sean Kean excused Marya, Marya stayed for another 2 hours to wait to be heard but eventually left to school. After Marya left, Denard Trapp was force to wait until the end of court to finally be brought before Richard B. Thompson to discuss the discovery request. Richard B. Thompson was upset that Marya left but did not issued a bench warrant and suspension of her license until September 13, 2014 which is a Saturday. This is Richard B. Thompson standard operation of procedure to make defendants uncomfortable and cause them financial harm and an excessive waste of precious time. Richard B. Thompson did this to everyone who put up a vigorous defense, including attorneys. As stated in the Asbury Park press, "His goal was to convict and penalize people as greatly as possible, including attorneys who would vigorously defend clients," one lawyer said on the condition of anonymity, out of concern that he could face retribution in court. "You would be made to sit in court for great periods of time, which would cost you financially." Richard B. Thompson conduct violated Marya Trapp constitutional right to due process. Richard B. Thompson would eventually be suspended from the bench for violating his code of judicial conduct. Just only in Eatontown Municipal Court, after Thompson was appointed in 2014, municipal revenues from court fines went from $505,000 in 2013 to about $668,500 in 2014 - a 32 percent increase. Under former Judge George Cierci, revenues were $494,700 in 2011 and dropped to $455,700 in 2012. Leaving every Municipality he presided over having a financial interest in any matter before the court.

This suspension of Marya's license would be rescinded December 3rd 2015 see attached. Prior to rescinding the suspension, Marya was issued tickets for driving while suspended by Shrewsbury Municipal Court, Oceanport Municipal Court, Middletown Municipal Court, Red Bank Municipal Court, and Spring Lake Municipal Court. Richard B. Thompson was the Magistrate Judge in all the municipality but for Spring Lake and Red Bank. Although Richard B. Thompson would Eventually be reprimanded Richard B. Thompson left every Municipal Court he presided over liable to suit, so each municipalities had financial interest to convict and let stand the all conviction of defendants that was adjudicated by Richard B. Thompson. To reverse Richard B. Thompson rulings would leave each municipalities liable. Spring Lake was the only municipality to dismissed the matter against Marya as soon as they received a copy of the rescinding order because Richard B. Thompson had no affiliation with Spring Lake.

Red Bank was also giving noticed of the Rescinding order but did not want to honor it, because Red Bank Police force had enter Marya's mother home without a warrant and claims were made against the Municipalities for violation of Marya's family constitutional rights to be secured in one's person and property. Marya's brother, Denard Trapp II, had filed claims against Red Bank in federal court for harassment. Marya and her brother, Shawn Trapp, filed a civil lawsuit against the Magistrate Judge William Himelman for violating his code of judicial conduct. Red Bank municipal court has a financial interest in Marya case because the the claims that are being brought against the municipality.

In conclusion, before this incident in Eatontown Marya never was found to be driving while suspended and always had her License. Spring Lake set precedence when they dismissed Marya complaint for driving while suspended when the rescinded order was presented. Marya and her family has lawsuits pending against Red Bank Municipality which makes that municipality bias and having a financial interest. The rest of the Municipalities has a financial interest due to the fact that Richard B. Thompson presided over the remaining municipalities involved, which Richard B. Thompson was hired to encourage aggressive cops to continue to issue frivolous tickets to raise money for each municipalities.

The defendants in this action resides at Richard B. Thompson, 222 NJ-35, Red Bank, New Jersey; Christopher Cason 47 Broad Street #A, Eatontown, New Jersey; Red Bank Municipal Court, 90 Monmouth Street Red Bank New Jersey; Shrewsbury Municipal Court, 419 Sycamore Avenue, P.O.
