CIVIL ACTION SUMMONS

Defendant(s)

From The State of New Jersey To The Defendant(s) Named Above:

The plaintiff, named above, has filed a lawsuit against you in the Superior Court of New Jersey. The complaint attached to this summons states the basis for this lawsuit. If you dispute this complaint, you or your attorney must file a written answer or motion and proof of service with the deputy clerk of the Superior Court in the county listed above within 35 days from the date you received this summons, not counting the date you received it. (A directory of the addresses of each deputy clerk of the Superior Court is available in the Civil Division Management Office in the county listed above and online at http://www.judiciary.state.nj.us/prose/10153_deptyclerklawref.pdf.) If the complaint is one in foreclosure, then you must file your written answer or motion and proof of service with the Clerk of the Superior Court, Hughes Justice Complex, P.O. Box 971, Trenton, NJ 08625-0971. A filing fee payable to the Treasurer, State of New Jersey and a completed Case Information Statement (available from the deputy clerk of the Superior Court) must accompany your answer or motion when it is filed. You must also send a copy of your answer or motion to plaintiff's attorney whose name and address appear above, or to plaintiff, if no attorney is named above. A telephone call will not protect your rights; you must file and serve a written answer or motion (with fee of $175.00 and completed Case Information Statement) if you want the court to hear your defense.

If you do not file and serve a written answer or motion within 35 days, the court may enter a judgment against you for the relief plaintiff demands, plus interest and costs of suit. If judgment is entered against you, the Sheriff may seize your money, wages or property to pay all or part of the judgment.

If you cannot afford an attorney, you may call the Legal Services office in the county where you live or the Legal Services of New Jersey Statewide Hotline at 1-888-LSNJ-LAW (1-888-576-5529). If you do not have an attorney and are not eligible for free legal assistance, you may obtain a referral to an attorney by calling one of the Lawyer Referral Services. 206 F.3d 303
United States Court of Appeals,
Third Circuit.

Barbara A. TODISH Appellant

v.

CIGNA CORP.; Eastern Airlines, Inc.

No. 98-6089. | Argued: Sept. 8, 1999 | Filed: March 10, 2000

Plaintiff sued insurer for long-term disability insurance benefits. The United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, Joseph A. Greenaway, Jr., granted summary judgment for insurer based on statute of limitations, and plaintiff appealed. The Court of Appeals, Sloviter, Circuit Judge, held that plaintiff was not "insane" within meaning of New Jersey tolling provision.

Affirmed.

241III(C) Personal Disabilities and Privileges

241k74 Insanity or Other Incompetency

241k74(1) In General

To be "insane" within meaning of New Jersey tolling provision, plaintiff must suffer from such condition of mental derangement as actually prevents sufferer from understanding his legal rights or instituting legal action. N.J.S.A. 2A:14-21.

[2] Limitation of Actions ⇌ Insanity or Other Incompetency

241 Limitation of Actions

241II Computation of Period of Limitation

241III(C) Personal Disabilities and Privileges

241k74 Insanity or Other Incompetency

241k74(1) In General

Although plaintiff was found mentally disabled by Social Security Administration for purposes of Social Security benefits, her mental impairments did not prevent her from understanding her legal rights or instituting legal action, and thus she was not "insane," as would toll New Jersey statute of limitations on her suit for long-term disability insurance benefits; plaintiff's actions, including her attempt to find legal counsel for her grievance hearing with employer, her attempts to obtain transcript of that hearing, her filing multiple times for Social Security benefits, her request for reconsideration of Social Security denial, and her hiring of attorney on contingency fee basis to represent her on appeal of Social Security denial, demonstrated that her mental impairments did not prevent her from understanding her legal rights or from instituting legal action. N.J.S.A. 2A:14-21.
