I received the information from the Tracks bulletin identifying Evelyn Aiken as the other party involved in the dispute on February 3, 2017 at the Walmart. I located a phone number and contacted Evelyn Aiken. Ms. Aiken reports that she was in the store that day with her mother Evelyn Aiken 04/16/1931. She stated she normally uses a cashier, but today she used the self check out. She stated she felt that she was being profiled and harassed as soon as she walked to the register, because the employee came right over to her and looked in her bag. She stated she told the employee that she did not need help, but she states the employee put her hand in Evelyn's bag. She stated she told the employee not to do it again.

She states that the employee did not do it again. She stated that had the employee gone in her bag again, she would have struck her. I asked Evelyn if she pushed or struck the employee at any time and she stated no, and her mother is the witness. I advised her that I was calling her to get her version of the events. I advised her that a report would be completed.

A short time later, Evelyn Aiken and her mother Evelyn arrived at headquarters to complete a written statement of the events. She advised me at that time, that she went to Walmart in Cedar Knolls and spoke to assistant managers Robert and Marlyn. She stated she was advised by them that she was no longer welcome in the store. She stated she did not get a copy of the form advising her that she was no longer welcome. I advised her to call corporate Walmart or go to the store and request a copy. I advised her that a copy of the report would be available in 7 working days.

On the above date and time, I responded to Walmart located at 235 Ridgedale Ave in an attempt to identify a person from complaint # 17-3158. Upon arrival, I met with store employee Jamie Jacobson, who obtained the license plate for the alleged offender as she left the parking lot, NJ REG. GF354U. This vehicle is registered to Evelyn Aiken from Morristown. Speaking with Jamie, I described the alleged offender from the DMV photo of Evelyn in an attempt to make a positive identification. Jamie stated that the description I gave him matched the description of the offender.
I notified Ptl. Quinn of the newly obtained information.
No further action taken by patrol.
