Summary

I arrived on scene and observed the side door of the building to be open. It did appear someone had been staying inside as there was a mattress and other items inside. I called a phone number on the side of the building and made contact with a Connor Blair. Blair stated he is just in the process of Leasing the building and did not have the owners information at this time. Blair stated he would let the owners know of the incident. The door was secured as best as possible and I cleared without incident.
