Human Services

The Department of Human Services sent to county and municipal welfare agencies guidance on enacting cautionary health and safety preventative measures in response to the Coronavirus disease (COVID-19), specifically as it relates to the temporary cessation of certain requirements for the Work First New Jersey (WFNJ) and New Jersey Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (NJ SNAP). The guidance is attached.

Labor

In accordance with Chief Justice Rabner's COVID-19 Notices to the Bar, and in consultation with Workers' Compensation Executive Committee of the NJ Bar Association, Chief Judge of Compensation Russell Wojtenko, Jr. has closed Workers' Compensation courts to the public in a similar fashion as all NJ Municipal Courts and Landlord Tenant Courts.

While those courts are closed for two weeks, operationally it is more efficient and convenient for all attorneys, litigants and court staff to adjourn all WC matters for three weeks as workers' compensation courts routinely operate in three week cycles. A three week adjournment in workers' compensation is a routine and frequent occurrence and will cause a minimal disruption to the WC system if any.

In addition, Emergent Motions for Medical and Temporary benefits will continue without interruption to the extent possible, including the use of telephonic and video technology. Filings will also continue to be accepted electronically through COURTS On-line.

Also NJDOL has updated it's page for guidance for employers. <https://www.nj.gov/labor/employer-services/business/covid.shtml>

Department of Environmental Protection Commissioner Catherine R. McCabe announced today that public may still access the State Parks, forests, recreation areas and Wildlife Management Areas, including roads, parking areas, trails, lakes and other open space areas for healthful passive recreation. However, campgrounds, visitor centers, nature centers, restrooms and similar facilities at state parks, forests, recreation areas, Wildlife Management Areas and historic sites are closed until further notice in order to protect public health and safety as the state works to address COVID-19.

New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission Chief Administrator Sue Fulton has announced that all New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission agency and road testing facilities will be closed effective immediately as a measure to mitigate the spread of COVID-19. We anticipate re-opening in two weeks, on Monday, March 30, 2020. All driver licenses, non-driver IDs, vehicle registrations, and inspection stickers expiring before May 31 have been extended by two months. Most renewals, replacements, changes of address, and other transactions can be processed online at NJMVC.gov

OAG

Attorney General Gurbir S. Grewal announced today that, in an effort to protect the public by limiting in-person contact that could result in the spread of COVID-19, multiple divisions within Department of Law and Public Safety are extending by at least 30 days the deadlines for renewing or resubmitting certain licenses. ABC is extending by 30 days any Minor Employment Permits set to expire in March. DCA houses 51 professional licensure boards, which collectively oversee approximately 720,000 active licensed professionals. The licenses issued by those boards have staggered renewal dates. The licensure actions announced today by Attorney General Grewal pertain only to licenses issued by the professional boards that require renewals or resubmission in the coming weeks. The State Athletic Control Board (SACB) is extending for 30 days all Mixed Martial Arts (MMA), Boxing and Kickboxing licenses including: Pro Boxer; Pro MMA Contestant; Amateur MMA Contestant; Pro Kickboxer; Amateur Kickboxer and Amateur Muay Thai Kickboxer

Effective immediately, DCA is extending by 60 days licenses for Home Improvement Contractor, Home Elevator Contractor, Respiratory Care Practitioner and Product Warrantor that are due for renewal during the March renewal period. Similarly, the following CDS licenses are being extended by 60 days: Analytical Lab; Clinic Narcotic Treatment Center; Dog Handler/Trainer; Animal Shelter; Manufacturer; Wholesale Distributor, and Research Facility. DCA is extending by 30 days licenses for Professional Engineers, Professional Land Surveyors and Professional Engineer & Land Surveyors, which are due for renewal during the April renewal period.

Health

Since the establishment of the Hotline, the NJ Poison Control Center has received 8,623 calls. Yesterday alone, NJPIES received 669 calls.

Today, Governor Murphy, the New Jersey Office of Emergency Management, the New Jersey Department of Health, and the United Ways of New Jersey announced today that NJ 211 has been activated to help handle COVID-19 related calls from New Jersey residents. All residents with questions or concerns about COVID-19 and resources available to them can call 2-1-1. NJ 211 is New Jersey's statewide, comprehensive, information and referral service operated by United Ways of New Jersey.

Residents call also text NJCOVID to 898-211 to receive text information and stay informed. To receive live text assistance, residents can text their zip code to 898-211.

These enhancements to 211 will supplement, rather than replace, the existing COVID-19 hotline, operated by the New Jersey Poison Control Center. State residents with questions about COVID-19 illness can continue to call the previously shared numbers for the COVID-19 hotline, but they can also call 211 to get answers about their COVID-19 questions.

Additionally, the Department of Health has a COVID-19 website with resources including CDC updates, guidance for schools, colleges, businesses, long-term care facilities, health care professionals and public health professionals. The website is available at <https://nj.gov/health/coronavirus>.

Human Services

The Department of Human Service's Division of Family Development will implement the following policies, effective immediately:

- Continue to pay child care providers for an extended period of time encouraged for those required to close by the health department, school district, or county executive related to COVID-19;
- Ensure providers commit to clean at the highest level of disinfection cleaning during this period of time;
- Waive parents/caregivers' child care subsidy co-payments for parents who request it due to impacts from COVID-19;

- Provide child care providers who remain open during this critical time a differential of $100 per child each month above the state reimbursed rate for children enrolled in the child care subsidy program;
- Compensate providers who remain open even if children are absent due to COVID-19;
- Give extended time to working parents to submit verification of works hours for the initial application process;
- Extend recertification timelines for at least three months in order for child care services to remain open;
- Allow parents or caregivers to continue their child care subsidy if their hours are reduced or if they are laid off due to COVID-19; and
- Make grants available for child care providers who participate in the child care subsidy program, including family child care providers, to clean and sanitize their facility or home; or to purchase additional supplies or services necessary to keeping centers and homes safe and sanitary.

Please find attached a press release from the department providing more detail on the actions taken.

Treasury

In order to protect public health, the Department of the Treasury on Wednesday announced the limited closure of a number of its offices that serve walk-in clientele while divisions work to review and revise existing protocols. The offices are expected to be closed through at least March 31, with an anticipated reopening of April 1. Taxpayers, individuals, and businesses will still be able to access these services online, over the phone, or through the mail during these limited closures. Please see the attached press release for more details.

Division of Local Government Services (DLGS)

“The Division strives to help all local governments achieve excellence, efficiency, and long-term fiscal stability in their operations”

Given the recent attention to the potential impacts of coronavirus, the Division issues this notice as a general precaution and to remind local units of options available to ensure the continued regular operation of government.

The Division of Local Government Services reminds local units that, in accordance with N.J.S.A. 10:4-6, et seq., (the “Open Public Meetings Act,” or “Act”), public meetings may be held in person or by means of communication equipment, N.J.S.A. 10:4-8(b), to include streaming services and other online meeting platforms. All meetings, including those held using communications equipment, must be noticed in a manner consistent with the requirements of the Act, unless the meeting is for emergent circumstances and held in a manner consistent with the requirements set forth at N.J.S.A. 10:4-9(b). Local units should also provide guidance to the public for remotely accessing and providing comment at a meeting. Local units should still have an advertised meeting place, which, is connected to the meeting through communications equipment, unless otherwise directed by state or local emergency management or health officials, consistent with Executive Order 103 (Murphy 3/9/2020).

This mechanism has been used by local governments during weather events and other circumstances that render in-person meetings less than optimal.

Local units are reminded that they are required to provide a means of public comment even if a meeting is held remotely. Further, if a local unit currently records the audio or video of its meetings, we recommend that it continue to record a remote meeting.

Local units holding meetings remotely are advised to avoid entering executive or closed session unless the topic of concern is urgent, directly affects the health, safety, or welfare of residents, and is an allowed exception as listed in N.J.S.A. 10:4-12, given the difficulty of ensuring only appropriate individuals are on the line during a separate session. If an executive or closed session is necessary, local units must use a mechanism that ensures the confidentiality of closed session. To this end, after announcing the executive or closed session at the public portion of the meeting consistent with the Act, a local unit may consider using a separate, non-public, dial-in mechanism for the executive or closed portion of the meeting.

In preparation for upcoming community events and meetings of public bodies, local units are encouraged to coordinate with legal counsel and local offices of emergency management to ensure continued compliance with N.J.S.A. 10:4-6 and other statutory obligations.

SUBJECT: Law Enforcement Guidance During COVID-19 Pandemic

These are challenging times. As law enforcement agencies all confront this pandemic together, we have two goals: to protect the safety of the public and the safety of our officers. While we cannot meet these goals through “social distancing” like many other professions, there are certainly steps we can (and must) take to ensure we are fulfilling our duties as safely and effectively as possible. This guidance lays out the best practices on how to do so and answers some questions that we have already received from law enforcement on how to meet the challenges of this difficult moment.

Keeping Officers Safe

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has provided a list of important best practices for keeping officers safe during this difficult period. First, when it comes to protecting from exposure to COVID-19, the CDC instructs officers to do the following:

- Maintain a distance of at least 6 feet from others whenever possible.
- Practice proper hand hygiene. Wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds. If soap and water are not readily available and illicit drugs are NOT suspected to be present, use an alcohol-based hand sanitizer with at least 60% alcohol.
- Do not touch your face with unwashed hands.
- Have a trained Emergency Medical Service/Emergency Medical Technician (EMS/EMT) assess and transport any arrestee you think might have COVID-19 to a healthcare facility.
- Ensure only trained personnel wearing appropriate personal protective equipment (PPE) have contact with individuals who have or may have COVID-19.

The CDC also recommends the use of PPE when possible, and we know a number of agencies are seeking to expand their supply of PPE. As Governor Murphy announced on Friday, the federal government has sent a significant number of additional supplies to New Jersey, but the New Jersey Office of Emergency Management (NJOEM) will be requesting more PPE supplies—in consultation with each county emergency management coordinator. Under state law, including Executive Order 103 (which declared both a State of Emergency and a Public Health Emergency in New Jersey), requests for additional PPE and decisions about how to allocate the PPE we already have are made by each county's emergency management coordinator in consultation with NJOEM. Please contact your emergency management coordinator directly if you have any questions or requests for additional PPE.

The CDC also provides guidance to officers who come into close contact with another individual, including during an arrest:

- Clean and disinfect duty belt and gear prior to reuse using a household cleaning spray or wipe, according to the product label.
- Follow standard operating procedures for the containment and disposal of used PPE.
- Follow standard operating procedures for containing and laundering clothes. In particular, avoid shaking the clothes.

While each law enforcement agency needs flexibility to respond to the precise circumstances you are all facing, I urge everyone to adhere to the CDC's helpful guidelines, which you can find here: <https://www.cdc.gov/coronavirus/2019-ncov/downloads/guidance-law-enforcement.pdf>.

At the Department of Law and Public Safety, we have incorporated these best practices and ordered that our divisions may no longer hold in-person meetings and must instead use teleconference and videoconference capabilities whenever possible. We have also taken other steps to limit in-person interactions, including suspending work-related travel and external meetings. A copy of our announcement is enclosed for your review (as Ex. A). To the extent possible and practical, we recommend that all law enforcement agencies implement a similar approach, understanding, of course, that roll-call and other essential briefings will still be required. Even then, however, we encourage following the best practices outlined above.

Addressing Manpower Challenges

Our work as law enforcement officers is more important than ever. So if a law enforcement agency faces manpower challenges because one or more of its officers contract COVID-19 or are subject to quarantine, that agency has at least two options: expanded use of Special Law Enforcement Officers (SLEOs), and reliance on mutual aid agreements.

First, agencies can turn to certain SLEOs for support. Under current law, agencies can rely on SLEO IIs to perform all law enforcement duties, which remains an available force multiplier. The statutory limitation on hours of work for SLEO IIs is inapplicable during periods of emergency. And while SLEO IIIs are limited by statute to performing duties on school or college grounds, a municipality or county has the ability to re-designate a SLEO III as a SLEO II, subject to approval by the PTC. Where a municipality or county does so, and where that officer has previously completed the Basic Course for

Police Officers, the New Jersey State Police Academy, or the SLEO III waiver course, the PTC will expedite such requests and has prepared a modified PTC-15 form—attached to this guidance as Ex. B—to facilitate that process. That waiver would extend for the duration of the Public Health Emergency. The converted SLEO III may not be used to offset regular overtime situations, of course, and should be used to address only staff shortage and mandatory overtime situations. There are almost 400 eligible SLEO IIIs, and the PTC will be issuing a list of those individuals this week.

Second, law enforcement agencies can look to existing mutual aid agreements with your county and municipal law enforcement partners. The appropriate time to seek aid from a municipal or county partner will necessarily depend on the precise circumstances your agency—and other agencies—are facing. Each agency should consult with your municipal or county emergency management coordinator when seeking mutual aid. Pursuant to Executive Order 103, your agency may only obtain mutual aid from a noncontiguous municipality upon the direction of your county emergency management coordinator (or his or her deputies), in consultation with NJOEM and the Department of Health.

Detaining Individuals Presenting Symptoms of COVID-19

A number of law enforcement agencies have requested guidance about detaining and housing arrestees who are presenting symptoms of COVID-19. We have contacted the Department of Corrections (DOC) and Juvenile Justice Commission (JJC) for guidance and will share that with you as soon as it becomes available. In the meantime, law enforcement agencies should rely on their existing protocols for detaining and housing arrestees who present symptoms of communicable diseases, and should consult with local hospitals and health care facilities about options for the secure detention of arrestees inside those facilities.

Additional Information for Law Enforcement

Charging Decisions: The COVID-19 pandemic is creating significant challenges for New Jersey's court system and our county correctional facilities. While public safety must always be our primary concern, law enforcement is in a position to temporarily reduce the stress on the courts and county jails as we make charging decisions in individual cases. First, law enforcement officers and prosecutors should consider delaying the filing of criminal charges in cases, such as certain fraud cases, that do not imminently impact public safety. Second, relying on the framework already established by Attorney General Law Enforcement Directive 2016-6 v3.0, prosecutors and law enforcement officers should consider the issues created by the COVID-19 pandemic as a factor weighing in favor of a decision to seek a complaint-summons and against a decision to seek a complaint-warrant. While our short-term goal is to reduce the impact on the courts and the county correctional facilities created by additional defendants, I want to be absolutely clear that public safety and victim safety are always the most important factors to be considered in any charging decision.

Enforcement of COVID-Related Violations: Today, Governor Murphy issued Executive Order 104, which, among other things: limits social gatherings to 50 people or less, in accordance with CDC and NJ Department of Health guidance; directs all public and private schools to close no later than Wednesday, March 18; directs all casino gaming facilities, race tracks, and certain other entertainment centers to close beginning 8 p.m. today; directs all non-essential retail, recreational, and entertainment businesses to cease nightly operations beginning 8 p.m. today; and directs all restaurants, with or without a liquor license, to only offer take-out and delivery services. In light of these orders, we anticipate that many enforcement-related questions will arise. I have directed each County Prosecutor and the Division of Criminal Justice (DCJ) to identify on-call Assistant Prosecutors and Deputy Attorneys General to be available 24/7 to pre-approve and provide guidance for any such charging decisions. County Prosecutors and DCJ will be providing this information to the law enforcement agencies in their jurisdictions. This letter relates only to violations of Executive Order 104, and does not extend to the violations of any COVID-related county or local orders.

At the same time, Executive Order 104 makes clear that our essential businesses—including grocery/food stores, pharmacies, medical supply stores, gas stations, and healthcare facilities—will be more important than ever. Because our law enforcement officers may not enforce any local ordinance that will in any way interfere with or impede the achievement of the Executive Order’s goals, during the pendency of this Public Health Emergency, law enforcement officers must exercise their discretion to not enforce local ordinances that limit the hours during which those companies may receive deliveries, as well as to not enforce any other local ordinances (such as noise ordinances) in ways that would inhibit transportation companies from timely and effectively delivering food, medicine, and medical supplies to these essential businesses.

Temporary Restraining Orders and Temporary Extreme Risk Protective Orders: Notwithstanding any court closures, our law enforcement officers will continue taking all necessary steps to protect the public from harm, including in emergent situations. On any day where the court is closed, officers should handle all TRO and TERPO applications as they do on holidays, nights, and weekends. As always, courts are prepared to review and resolve these applications.

Title 39 Violations: When it comes to the enforcement of our motor vehicle laws, officers should be aware that the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Commission has granted an automatic two-month extension for driver licenses, registrations, and inspection stickers expiring in March, April, and May. As a result, a driver with a license that expires in March, April, or May can continue driving without violating Title 39 until that two-month period has passed. You can find more information about that extension here: <https://www.nj.gov/mvc/press/archives/2020/031320.htm>.

OPRA: Several agencies have raised concerns about their ability to fulfill non-emergency duties at this time, in particular the time required for addressing especially extensive OPRA requests. While we cannot counsel you on your responses to individual requests, OPRA allows agencies to seek “reasonable” extensions to fulfill OPRA requests. Although each case is fact dependent and turns on the particular challenges an agency is facing (as well as the nature of the OPRA request), the State of Emergency and Public Health Emergency are obviously two important circumstances demonstrating an agency’s need for extensions, and we anticipate courts will take them into account. OPRA further provides that if a request would substantially disrupt agency operations, the custodian may deny access after attempting to reach a reasonable solution with the requestor that accommodates the interests of the requestor and the agency.

New Jersey has some of the best law enforcement leaders and officers in the country, and I know that together we will rise to this unprecedented challenge. While this letter offers guidance on how to keep officers safe and how to continue fulfilling our core mission of public safety, we know that other questions will arise. Please raise questions and concerns with your county’s emergency management coordinator and with DCJ—our DCJ team is available at covid19LE@njoag.gov—and we will provide additional advice as quickly as possible.

Governor Murphy and Superintendent Callahan Announce Clarifications to List of Essential Businesses Permitted to Operate

Governor Phil Murphy and Superintendent of the State Police Colonel Patrick Callahan today announced an Administrative Order clarifying which businesses are permitted to operate and ways in which certain businesses may operate in accordance with Executive Order 107. The Administrative Order states the following:

- 1) Pet grooming businesses, pet daycare, and pet boarding businesses and 2) stores that principally sell items necessary for religious observation or worship shall be considered essential retail businesses.
- Car dealerships may permit customers that have ordered and/or purchased a vehicle online or by phone to test drive the vehicle at the time of pick-up or prior to delivery, provided the dealership adopts social distancing policies, the individual is given access to the vehicle alone, and the dealership appropriately cleans and sanitizes the vehicle after such test drive if the customer does not purchase the vehicle.
- Licensees, owners, operators, employees, or independent contractors of personal care services facilities are not permitted to provide personal care services in their own homes, the homes of others, or in any facility or business setting unless the individual personal care service provider is providing the service to their household members, immediate family or other individuals with whom the personal care service provider has a close personal relationship, such as those for whom the personal care service provider is a caretaker or romantic partner. A prior business relationship alone does not qualify as a close personal relationship.

"As long as my stay-at-home order remains in effect, we'll continue to provide New Jerseyans and our business community at-large with as much clarity as possible for any and all restrictions we've put in place," said Governor Murphy. "I thank everyone for doing their part to stay at home and maintain social distancing, which is the single most important thing we can do to beat this virus."

"We understand the challenges businesses face in these unprecedented times and the need to keep the economy operating," said Colonel Patrick Callahan, Superintendent of the New Jersey State Police. "These clarifications address the way certain businesses are permitted to operate, while adhering to the stay-at-home order and social distancing guidelines."

The Order will take effect immediately.

As you all know, this virus is very serious. We had our first death in Monmouth and others in critical condition. I am in constant communication with our hospital heads and I am very concerned that the next week will get worse. The strength of a specific strand of this virus is very concerning and very contagious.

Please see the attached statement on curfews put out by the City of Asbury Park. I would strongly urge other towns to follow the outstanding leadership that Asbury Park just took. We must stop community spread.

If anyone has any questions, please e-mail or call me.

Thank you for your consideration.
