Fudge Sale

The Fudge orders are due by Monday, Dec. 6. Please remember that students make 50% profit on this sale. Cash or checks made out to "NJ Thespians". Pickup in Wed. Dec. 22 at 2 pm in the Main Lobby.

Dinner and a Show

██████████ mom, looked into the East Dover Fire Company on Fisher Blvd (thank you!!!). We can rent the space for free but must use their caterer. She is researching the cost for that now. Fingers crossed!

Disney Payments

We finally booked transportation and flights. I am not sending flight info quite yet though as while we secured a flight, we are trying to get the flight cost lowered. Our agent is looking around for something cheaper. On that note, I was able to determine what the next two payments are looking like so that you can plan accordingly.

Payment #3: Monday, January 3, 2022: $800

Payment #4: Tuesday, February 1, 2022: $947

As I said, we are hoping to get the flight cheaper. He is also working on lower costs for a few other things. He said, at the max, the Feb payment will be $947 a kid. However, our travel agent is hoping it will be lower than that.

Please note, you can use any fundraising money towards the 2 payments. I just emailed you all what you currently have in your account. The fudge sale will be in prior to the Jan payment. The Adopt-A-Performer and the tentative Dinner and a Show will go towards the February payment.

Good morning, Carolyn!

I hope you had a wonderful Thanksgiving! No, it will not be an additional $36.00 per student. If a student is participating in the Festival Disney performance, Disney requires a Festival Disney Ticket to be purchased and the workshop will be added-on. I have attached your updated invoice with the 5 theatre kids participating in the Festival. I placed all of these students in quad occupancy until the rooming list is submitted.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

All the best,

Jeff

I think we can charge $40. The price doesn't include sales tax or the 18% gratuity so it will be more per person :-(

BYOB is perfect. That's what we normally do.

Let me just double check the date

Only thing is it's BYOB but if each family brought something then we can make it work (If you want alcohol involved lol) also, joe said he will honor 2021 pricing so the pricing attached is good for us in January. Hello!

I have some more Disney news for you.

Fudge Sale

The Fudge orders are due by Monday, Dec. 6. Please remember that students make 50% profit on this sale. Cash or checks made out to "NJ Thespians". Pickup in Wed. Dec. 22 at 2 pm in the Main Lobby.

Dinner and a Show

mom, looked into the East Dover Fire Company on Fisher Blvd (thank you!!!). We can rent the space for free but must use their caterer. She is researching the cost for that now. Fingers crossed!

Disney Payments

We finally booked transportation and flights. I am not sending flight info quite yet though as while we secured a flight, we are trying to get the flight cost lowered. Our agent is looking around for something cheaper. On that note, I was able to determine what the next two payments are looking like so that you can plan accordingly.

Payment #3: Monday, January 3, 2022: $800

Payment #4: Tuesday, February 1, 2022: $947

As I said, we are hoping to get the flight cheaper. He is also working on lower costs for a few other things. He said, at the max, the Feb payment will be $947 a kid. However, our travel agent is hoping it will be lower than that.

Please note, you can use any fundraising money towards the 2 payments. I just emailed you all what you currently have in your account. The fudge sale will be in prior to the Jan payment. The Adopt-A-Performer and the tentative Dinner and a Show will go towards the February payment.

Hello!

Thanks so much for reaching out. I was in Disney all last week so I am catching up on emails today. First of all, let me just say that this is a WEIRD year. We normally have met at least 3 times by now, but because we are in a holding pattern with this venue upset, we have not met at all. The STO have been meeting with Jason, but that is about it. Everyone is always contributing at the meetings, but since we have not had any, I think a lot of people on the board are just at a loss right now. I do not even know what to do! I will let Jason know that you are interested in helping him in case he needs anything. Right now, he has [REDACTED] choreographing the opening number and he has been doing all of the rest, so he may not need help. But I will let him know.

Thank you for reaching out. You are valued on this board. This year is just very, very abnormal.

If I'm being honest, I would rather you not push. I'm sure Zach is on a different page, but if it's taking this long to get a contract signed, I cannot imagine the stress I will have to deal with to secure other paperwork I will need for the state and nationals. This process has been draining and exhausting and I honestly do not want to make it any worse.

Thank you for trying though. I appreciate it.

Hi guys!
another venue update.

1. Still no contract from GCIT.

2. Jackson priced half the festival for us. This is for custodians, AV Tech, and security. Cost is right around $4500. This doesn't include classrooms. I completed all necessary paperwork to get a final price and now I'm waiting.

3. Jackson cannot provide bussing to the hotels. Jason is seeing if NB can do it. If you are close to Jackson and think your school can do it, please reach out to Val ASAP. If we can't find bussing, then we aren't offering it this year.

4. Jackson has a LOT of guidelines for their rentals. I'm a little worried about meeting expectations. Val is currently reviewing everything that I signed. I also plan to sit down with Cori from Jackson when I get back from Disney.

Hi everyone!

I want to take tomorrow to figure out how much each student made from the Yard Sale. I had asked everyone to clock in and clock out on the Google Sheet. Below are the hours based on what I saw on the sheet. If your name is not listed below, then I do not have you down for volunteering that day. If a parent worked in place of a student, that is included below based on the times from the Google Sheet.

If this is INCORRECT, please respond back prior to 7 am tomorrow, Friday, Oct. 29.

- [REDACTED]: 7 am-2 pm = 7 hours
- [REDACTED]: 7 am-4 pm = 9 hours
- [REDACTED]: 7am-12noon, 1:30-4 = 7.5 hours

Subject: Disney Updates

Hi everyone!

1. I am currently counting the Yard Sale money. Hoping to make a deposit today after school and then figure out how much each student who worked will receive.
2. Payments-- Originally I gave you a tentative list of payment dates. I have gotten dates from the company, so here is the updated list.

Payment #1: Due Nov. 10-- tentative payment is $325 per student

Payment #2: Due January 3

Payment #3: Due February 1

We have not booked the flights yet. So I cannot determine the payment for Jan and Feb yet.

Without the flights, it is a little over $1000 per student.

3. I have attached the cancellation policy. From the travel agency..."I have attached our cancellation policy. Only the airfare is nonrefundable if students individually drop from the trip. If Covid were to happen again and Disney closes, there will be exceptions made." As a reminder, we depart on March 22, 2021.

Hi Zach!

Arts Ed NJ is planning to host a "Vote Arts Ed NJ" stream that will go live at 12pm on Voting day.

We will be pre-recording the stream at 6:30pm on Nov 1st.

Would it be possible to have 2 or 3 student advocates on this stream to discuss their experience?

I look forward to hearing from you!

Thanks and Stay Safe,

Jocelyn Jeffries :)

Hi everyone!

1. I am currently counting the Yard Sale money. Hoping to make a deposit today after school and then figure out how much each student who worked will receive.

2. Payments-- Originally I gave you a tentative list of payment dates. I have gotten dates from the company, so here is the updated list.

Payment #1: Due Nov. 10-- tentative payment is $325 per student

Payment #2: Due January 3

Payment #3: Due February 1

We have not booked the flights yet. So I cannot determine the payment for Jan and Feb yet.

Without the flights, it is a little over $1000 per student.

3. I have attached the cancellation policy. From the travel agency..."I have attached our cancellation policy. Only the airfare is nonrefundable if students individually drop from the trip. If Covid were to happen again and Disney closes, there will be exceptions made." As a reminder, we depart on March 22, 2021.

Hello!

The cost for the Theatre workshop is $36. So each of you will need to write me a check to "NJ Thespians" for this amount whenever you can. The next payment date is November, followed by January, and then the final date is February. Whenever you can get it in is fine. I just need it by the last payment.

I am in C06 all day.

Good morning, Carolyn!

The cost of the plane ticket is not factored into the package yet as the air is still being determined. I usually divide the payments into equal portions to make it easier on the group. Once the airfare is confirmed, I will disperse it amongst the 3 remaining payments. However, if it is easier for you I can add the majority of the air payment to the final balance.

Regarding your previous email about parents asking about what the refund policy is and dates. I have attached our cancellation policy. Only the airfare is nonrefundable if students individually drop from the trip. If Covid were to happen again and Disney closes, there will be exceptions made. If you have any questions about the cancellation policy, I am happy to explain!

Please let me know if you have any additional questions.

Will the final balance be the cost of the plane tickets? Is that the only thing missing right now?

I am trying to figure out for the parents how much they each owe. It looks like $325 a kid on 11/19 and 1/14. And then I was thinking the Final balance is the plane ticket cost?

Hey there,

I didn't really have the time to process this until now, but I don't think all of the students understood the question. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] aren't in the chorus, so I don't know what question they thought you asked. I know we mentioned that kids not enrolled might be able to participate, but things are getting weird since it is looking more likely that we will never have late busses this year. So, my ability to teach a Festival Chorus after school is greatly compromised and I will likely have to find a way to teach all of the music during class time.

Chris

PS- I was upset that we missed out on that charter quote! It looked like a good option. We need to have a "Disney Staff" meeting.
