Narrative

February 21, 2025 / Patrolman Peter Farmer #21 08:21;

Fire Call / Odor of Gas

On the above date and time, I was dispatched to and responded to the Monmouth Beach Cleaners, 29 Beach Road, for an odor of gas.

Upon arrival, I spoke to the caller, Paul Procopio, who reported that when he entered the building this morning he smelled an odor of gas, primarily in the area of his back door by the hall way. New Jersey Natural Gas Company was notified to respond.

Shortly after, members of the Monmouth Beach Fire Department and the Sea bright Fire Department arrived on location. After thoroughly checking the entire building and businesses, they detected with their sensors a gas leak coming from the utility room closet.

Shortly after, NJNG arrived on location and the scene was turned over to them as both fire companies and myself cleared.

Nothing further.
