Gentlemen,

If you do not relieve Mr. Duff of his responsibilities, you are anti American, anti constitutional fascists. North Hanover should be mortified by the schools trying to sexualize children and then attacking a parent for rightfully complaining.

I left the northeast for the free state of Florida a decade ago and stories like this ensure that I will never return.

Sincerely,
Peter Mullen

Seems you want to hide on this, which is honestly pathetic. We covered this tonight and will cover it again soon. Any time you want to explain why you tried to shut down the First Amendment rights of a mom of an elementary school teacher, let us know.

Greetings,

I left a call for your office that has not been returned. I need an immediate reply as to whether anyone at Joint Base MDL suggested to you that Angela Reading's post should be taken down. Also I'm seeking an explanation from you as to why you would relay that message to Reading. Additionally, I need a full accounting of any official actions that were taken by your department in response to Reading's Facebook posts. Christopher Schilling at Joint Base MDL stated that the police department did respond. I want to know exactly how.

Subject: Extremism

SFC Duff,

I just heard a news story, which included statements that you used the power of your position to try (and succeeded as the individual felt threatened by power to acquiesce in the removal) in removing a post of Angela Reading on Facebook that discussed terms in a public school that she believed were inappropriate for her children. I am sure that I do not know anywhere near all the facts, but as a former police officer, and an Army veteran, if this woman was singled out by law enforcement for her innocuous, common sense post, I hope you all get a lesson in free speech that sticks.

Whether agreed with or not, people in this free nation have wide latitude in their speech, and just because someone's speech could be deemed as offensive to others, outside of politically correct "norms", or contrary to woke agendas or narratives, it does not inherently make that speech a threat to society that must be monitored or removed. I hope I am wrong, I would hate to think law enforcement would mobilize to combat extremism, when what they're calling extreme is nowhere near a common sense definition of extreme, and more fits the definition of government officials unconstitutionally acting to suppress free speech. That would be a travesty to a professor I love and care about deeply.

Regards,

Christopher Meredith

Is it true you sided with pedophiles and attacked the mother instead of defending her and her children, and didn't arrest the pedos?

I just saw on Tucker Carlson that you instructed that a NJ mom's post on Facebook, that protested the sexualization of her elementary school child, be taken down. When did it become to mission of the local police to to tell American citizens what they can & cannot post on Facebook or ANY OTHER MEDIA? Have you heard of the 1st Amendment? The Constitution? You have no jurisdiction to tell us to take down our posts. Why don't you spend your time catching criminals like the ones your prosecutors turn loose & refuse to prosecute. You should resign. You have no business having authority over law abiding citizens. You are a disgrace to honest law enforcement officers.

I am a retired police officer. You should not be interfering with how parents raise concern about their kids. You take an oath to defend a constitution. You are not the arbiter of political correctness on Facebook. Police officers on the street need public support. They don't need a politician as a police chief. There was nothing threatening in the post. If you felt it was threatening you should have written a report and sent it to the prosecutor for review or charging.

I can't ever remember a course in the police academy dealing with monitoring Facebook Posts. You jumped the gun. Officers need to think critically before they act and if they can't depend on their leader doing it with a minor PTA Facebook page, then they have no leadership in your department.

I encourage you to apologize to the person who posted and to the community as a whole and to let your officers know that you were wrong to put politics into the job.

Thanks and I wish you safety.

I will sign the petition but we need to get the parents from every school to go in and take down all this garbage. It has to be done, its not going away even when the new elected board members get in unless they are fearless and demand if they are the majority to get these out of the schools all schools in the state. Its not enough to just talk without action. I will help, even if I get arrested, don't care, will do it. We have to send a message.

Good evening,

I sent this to our Superintendent, Helen Payne, but wanted to include you as well.
..... here is what I just sent 12/7.

I just wanted to express that this situation is getting worse. There are many more posts about "firing teachers" "closing the school" and even the possibility of this situation being on Fox News. Because of the reach these extremists have I do fear for the safety of our schools. I have a letter prepared to send to the BOE Members and will cc you (and maybe the PD?).
