NARRATIVE DETAILS

Narrative Type	Narrative Date	Reported By	Approving Officer
NI - Initial Narrative	01/12/2019	27211-Truitt, Yvette	27185-May, Brian
Narrative Responded to [REDACTED] for a removal. Upon arrival I spoke to Jingwen Hoa and his wife, who refused to give her name. The wife was upset because her 14 year old daughter [REDACTED] was smoking Marijuana with her juvenile male friend in her bedroom. The boy was hiding behind the closet door when the mother came into the room. The wife explained that this was the third or fourth time telling 14 year old [REDACTED] not to have the boy in her home. However, [REDACTED] continues to disregard what her mother tells her to do. The mother was extremely irate and began yelling at police asking what she should do because her daughter won't listen. She then asked what will happen if I shoot him? And proceeded to say then it would be a dead black boy in Pennsauken on the news. When police gave her several options to discipline her child she became even more upset. Jingwen tried to suggest the boy broke into his home while the parents weren't there. I explained to the parents it wasn't a burglary if their 14 year old invites him into the home. I even asked [REDACTED] if she let the boy in the house, she began laughing and said yes. At this time I reiterated to the parents to discipline their daughter, the mother started yelling for police to get out of her house. She refused to talk to me anymore, so I began walking out. While exiting the house she tried shutting the front door as I was in the doorway and yelled if she had gotten hit with the door she would sue for assault. I turned to her and stated she was the one shutting the door, it would have been her fault. The juvenile boy left prior to police arrival.
