Narrative
While on patrol in the area of 5247 Rt. 701 observed a male carrying a large box. I made contact with the male and he was identified as Joseph Santore. Santore was carrying an unopened case of (30) paper towels. Santore stated that he retrieved the towels from a dumpster but was unable to provide police with a specific dumpster. An N.C.I.C check revealed that Santore had several outstanding warrants and was a wanted person out of the Burlington County Sheriffs Office. Santore was handcuffed then searched. The rear seat of unit #305 was searched prior to placing Santore inside. Santore was placed into unit #305, seatbelted and transported to headquarters for processing. A check of the surrounding businesses was performed and at the time of this report all ground level doors and windows were found to be secured. Once at headquarters Santore was processed and remanded to the Camden County Jail. The paper towels were logged into evidence.

NARRATIVE DETAILS

NI - Initial Narrative	01/12/2019	27217-Canales, Daxton	27185-May, Brian

Narrative

I responded to 1924 42nd Street for a report of a loud noise complaint. Upon arrival, I checked the area and observed a gray SUV bearing NJ REG: C31-JKJ occupied three times. I could hear the music playing inside the vehicle. The driver Amir Rutherford stated that he was listening to music with his friends that lived on 42nd street. They were advised to turn the music off and go inside the residence to alleviate any possibility of future calls for a disturbance. The vehicle was legally parked, so they went into the residence and went to sleep.
