W126049				Other Closed	I understand from the S.E.C., and the Ontario regulators regarding securities, that funds belonging to the estate of have escheated to New Jersey. New Jersey Steel was a publicly traded corporation (NJS). It was incorporated in Delaware in 1976. On 1/20/98, the NJS was purchased via a tender offer of $23.00 a share. The purchaser was a Canadian steel company operating under the name Co-Steel. Since had passed away in January of 1991, we were never advised of the tender offer. The address they had for him was inactive. His name was . The name on the certificate was improperly recorded as . The certificate lists his name as . Defined Benefit Plan. Regardless of the spelling, neither name is appearing on any of the unclaimed asset websites. I am the executor and sole beneficiary of the estate. I can forward a copy of the certificate to a valid email address. Can someone research this issue ? It never seems to resolve. My research leads to the conclusion the funds were escheated but I have no dates when this occurred.
