145 Crash Description/Narrative

Driver of V1 stated he was traveling west on Lakeside Dr. South and observed a pedalcyclist, later identified as David Raabe, riding his bike in the same direction on the shoulder of Lakeside Drive South. Driver of V1 further stated that as he was passing D. Raabe, he slowed down and created a large buffer zone by going far to the left, over the solid yellow lines. Driver of V1 further stated that as he was passing D. Raabe, D. Raabe abruptly made a left turn, crossing Lakeside Drive South and directly into his path. Driver of V1 further stated that he applied his brakes and turned his vehicle further to the left to avoid a collision, but was unsuccessful.

Cory Faulkingham (Witness #1) stated that he was traveling west on Lakeside Drive East behind V1. C. Faulkingham reiterated Driver of V #1's statement and detailed how D. Raabe abruptly turned into traffic.

D. Raabe stated that while riding his bike on Lakeside Drive South, he looked over his left shoulder to see if there was any traffic approaching from behind. D. Raabe further stated that as he looked over his shoulder he inadvertently turned his handlebars toward the left steering his bike into traffic. D. Raabe then stated that once he realized that he was going to collide with V1, he jumped off his bike and landed on the roadway. D. Raabe suffered a laceration to his right arm and hand. R. Raabe also suffered back pain. LTEMs arrived and after evaluating D. Raabe (with his mother, Leigh Raabe present) he declined further medical treatment. It should be noted that D. Raabe was not wearing a helmet.

Block 126a

Prior to the collision the pedalcyclist jumped off the bike leaving the bike in the roadway.

Block Block #132,#133,134 & 135

Boy's, Trek "VIRTUAL" mountain Bike, bearing serial #1038U0115UTU was run over by V1 and sustained broken forks and two bent rims. The bike is estimated to be valued at $500.00.
