The right to immediately access certain government records is set forth in N.J.S.A. 47:1A-5(e) which states that "immediate access ordinarily shall be granted to budgets, bills, vouchers, contracts, including collective negotiations agreements and individual employment contracts, and public employee salary and overtime information.

Pursuant to NJ Law, the this is an Open Public Records request if sent to a county, state, or municipal clerk

Any and all redactions must provide a Vaughn Index -

A Vaughn Index must: (1) identify each document withheld; (2) state the statutory exemption claimed; and (3) explain how disclosure would damage the interests protected by the claimed exemption.

The description of the withheld material must be "sufficiently specific to permit a reasoned judgment as to whether the material is actually exempt .

If a court finds that an index is not sufficiently detailed, it will often require the relevant agency to provide one that is more detailed
