Narrative
On the above date and time, I was dispatched to 406 E. 11th Avenue for a possible burglary in progress and the accused also stated that he had a gun. Officer Urschel and I responded to the location along with Officers P. Flynn and Robinson. As we made our approach to the residence, Officer Robinson spoke with the caller while Officer Urschel and I made our approach to the back of the residence. We were able to find an individual that matched the description, later identified as David Zamulinsky. I advised him to keep his hands on top of his head and to stay where he was at. I checked Zamulinsky for any weapons, which he had none. I asked Zamulinsky what was going on and he advised me that he was in a dating relationship with (See page 2) the caller's mother. He came home from the bars and tried to get into the house, but couldn't get in. That's when the caller told him to leave and jokingly Zamulinsky stated that he had a gun. I advised him that his statement is not a joke and the caller took it seriously. I then checked Zamulinsky for any active warrants and dispatch advised me that he had one active warrant for his arrest. Officer Urschel advised him of the active warrant and placed him under arrest. Officer Urschel and I transported him to the station.
