Good morning Adrienne,

Please find another records request form attached as two pages. This request is for my mother-in-law, Maureen Mitchell. Again, I apologize that I had to scan the document as two separate pages.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Thank you,
Marcella Mitchell

Custodian of Records

Date

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.

TIMEFRAME FOR RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The Custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to a government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond until you reappear in the Custodian of Records' Office seeking a response to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered to be denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record, you may:

- 1) Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
- 2) File a Complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.

Administration Building
101 Hooper Avenue
Toms River, New Jersey 08753

PUBLIC NOTICE

In accordance with Public Law 2001, Chapter 404, concerning public access to government records, please be advised that the Custodian of Records in the Office of the Clerk of the Board of Chosen Freeholders is located at the Ocean County Administration Building, 101 Hooper Avenue, Toms River, New Jersey 08753, business days between the hours of 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

A request to inspect or copy government records should be submitted on the Request for Government Records form which is available in the Office of the Custodian of Records.

A person who is denied access to a government record by the Custodian of Records may institute a proceeding to challenge the Custodian's decision by filing an action in Superior Court.

In lieu of filing an action in Superior Court, a person who is denied access to a government record may file a complaint with the Government Records Council.

Custodian of Records

Date

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.

Custodian of Records

Date

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.

Subject: Open Public Records Act request - OPRA Request - State House Strategies / Robert Nixon

Dear Ocean County,

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I certify under penalty of NJSA 2C:28-3 that I have not been convicted of an indictable offense. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Records requested:

I am seeking copies of the following:

1) Register of payments made between January 1, 2017 and October 31, 2017 to any of the following parties on behalf of the Ocean County Board of Health:

- * Robert Nixon, 15 Jefferson Court, Jackson NJ
- * Statehouse Strategies, LLC, Trenton NJ OR Jackson, NJ
- * Any business, corporate entity that lists Robert Nixon, 15 Jefferson Court, Jackson NJ as an officer or partner.

2) Copies of all active contracts between Ocean County Board of Health and Robert Nixon or Statehouse Strategies, LLC.

3) Copies of Job Descriptions for any positions held by Robert Nixon within the Ocean County Board of Health, including appointed board memberships, committees or commissions.

Yours faithfully,
Phil Stilton

Custodian of Records

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to records within seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not receive a response within this time frame, you may contact the Custodian of Records by mail, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so notified within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. If the record is not available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records regarding a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an appeal with the New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of the General Affairs.

Subject: Open Public Records Act request - PRHS roofing construction complaints

Dear Ocean County Health Department,

This is a request for public records made under OPRA and the common law right of access. I certify under penalty of NJSA 2C:28-3 that I have not been convicted of an indictable offense. Please acknowledge receipt of this message.

Records requested:

- All complaints made during the year of 2017, as it relates to the roofing construction project and any air quality issues at Pinelands Regional High School. I understand the complainants must remain anonymous. Please do whatever it takes to protect protect their identities.
- All documents of correspondence and actions taken as a result of each of those complaints.

Thank you,

Jeff Epstein

Custodian of Records

Date

TIMEFRAME FOR A RESPONSE TO A REQUEST

The custodian of Records is required to grant or deny access to government record no later than seven (7) business days after receiving the request. If you do not provide a name, address, telephone number or other means of contacting you, the Custodian of Records will be unable to respond to the original request.

If the government record is in storage or archived, you will be so advised within seven (7) business days after the Custodian of Records receives your request. You will be advised by the Custodian of Records when the record can be made available. If the record is not made available by that time, access will be considered denied.

RIGHT TO APPEAL

If you wish to challenge a decision of the Custodian of Records denying access to a government record you may:

1. Institute a proceeding to challenge that decision by filing an action in Superior Court in New Jersey; or
2. File a complaint with the Government Records Council in the Department of Community Affairs.
