Im assuming these are one of the scholarships that we host on a designated night in the spring. Dawn should have a folder with everything from last years about which scholarships were given out, what the deadline dates were, all the corresponding info. Let me know what she has on her end.

This coming Monday, June 16, 2025, Heaven would have walked across the stage as a proud graduate of Wallkill Valley High School's Class of 2025 surrounded by the very peers, friends, and family she spent her younger years growing up with.

Though Heaven was not officially enrolled at Wallkill Valley at the time of her passing, it was her intention to return to be with the classmates she grew up alongside, to celebrate her accomplishments with those she loved. Heaven Davenport was, and will always be, part of the Wallkill Valley Class of 2025. Her absence is deeply felt. Her presence should have been honored.

surely remember her not as someone who left too early, but as someone who was always meant to be part of this moment.

To lose a child is unimaginable. To have their memory overlooked is an added grief no parent should have to endure. Honoring Heaven with an empty chair, her name read aloud, or even a quiet acknowledgment in the program — any one of these gestures could have spoken volumes.

Heaven Davenport was, and will always be, part of the Wallkill Valley Class of 2025. Her absence is deeply felt. Her presence should have been honored.

It's not too late for us — as a community, as individuals, as fellow human beings — to remember Heaven. To recognize the importance of empathy. To ensure that no family ever feels unseen in their grief again.

On March 19, 2021, the world lost Heaven Davenport in a tragic and untimely way. This coming Monday, June 16, 2025, Heaven would have walked across the stage as a proud graduate of Wallkill Valley High School's Class of 2025 surrounded by the very peers, friends, and family she spent her younger years growing up with.

Though Heaven was not officially enrolled at Wallkill Valley at the time of her passing, it was her intention to return to be with the classmates she grew up alongside, to celebrate her accomplishments with those she loved. Her dreams were rooted in the community, the school, and the people who shaped her early life.

Recently, her mother reached out to Wallkill Valley High School with a simple, deeply human request: to reserve a seat for Heaven at graduation. A chair, symbolically empty, but full of meaning. Yet, a silent powerful reminder of a young life that should have been there, celebrating a milestone that was stolen too soon. It was not a demand for attention, but a heartfelt plea for recognition. A way to honor her daughter in the presence of those who knew her, loved her, and still carry her in their hearts.

The request received no response. No acknowledgment. No compassion. A painful silence that echoes louder than words.

For a grieving parent, this moment was not just about ceremony, it was about remembrance. It was about giving Heaven the honor she deserved, and allowing her memory to live on among her classmates, who
