We are filming a documentary about one of the runners (Dan LaMorte) of the New Jersey Devil 100 Miler occurring on April 22, 2023. Our crew is only 2 people/camera operators that will be handheld/on small tripods. We will not obstruct traffic, and we will be on foot and transporting between aid stations with one car to follow Dan along the way. This is an independent, self-funded documentary sharing the 180lb weight-loss story of NJ local comedian, Dan LaMorte as he attempts to run his first 100 mile race. We have been following Dan for almost 2 years and this race is important for us to film. We would be sure to give the State Park Service proper credits in the film for helping and allowing us to document.
