NARRATIVE On 07/01/2022 at 1425Hrs. I was dispatched to 280 Novack Drive for a report of a domestic. Upon arrival I spoke with Marisa Lloret. Ms. Lloret advised that her and her daughter, M [REDACTED] M [REDACTED] were in a verbal argument and Ms. M [REDACTED] hit Ms. Lloret's hat off of her head. She advised that this argument was stemming from Ms. Lloret telling Ms. M [REDACTED] that she could not get a tattoo. Ms. Lloret advised that one minute Ms. M [REDACTED] would be fine and the next she would be violent and believes that she needs psychiatric help. I advised Ms. Lloret that I could contact an ambulance to transport Ms. M [REDACTED] to the hospital for Psychiatric assistance and she could explain this issue to a Doctor. Ms. Lloret agreed and Gloucester County EMS was contacted. While awaiting Gloucester County EMS I spoke with Ms. M [REDACTED]. She advised that she did not have a big issue with her not being able to get a tattoo and the issue was that Ms. Lloret speaks negatively to her and states that Ms. Lloret is "counting down the days until she turns 18". Ms. M█████ advised that when she tells DCP&P about the issue they do not do anything about it.

I advised Ms. M█████ that I would contact DCP&P and hopefully they would respond to the hospital to speak with her about the issue.

Upon returning to police headquarters I contacted DCP&P and advised them of the concern. They advised they would document the issue and if their case was still open, they would forward it to the employee working the case. They also advised however, if the case was closed the verbal abuse would not be enough to re-open the case.

NARRATIVE On 05/19/2022 at 2144Hrs. I was dispatched to 280 Novack Drive for a disagreement between the caller, Marisa Lloret and her daughter M [REDACTED] M [REDACTED] (MM). Ms. Lloret advised that MM got into a verbal argument with her brother over the usage of bean bag chairs in the living room. Ms. Lloret advised MM to go to her room, which she did, however not before calling her brother foul names. I then spoke with MM who confirmed that she had an issue with her brother, which stemmed from the two walking home from school. When it continued at home, MM advised that Ms. Lloret began making snarky remarks to her, which furthered the issue. I advised MM to try to stay away from her mother for a little while until things calmed down. I then advised Ms. Lloret of MM's plans to get her homework done and then go to sleep. I also advised Ms. Lloret that she shouldn't make any remarks to MM after the argument is over, especially after she went to her drove to [REDACTED] Downs Street and spoke to M [REDACTED] friend and her mother, who advised me M [REDACTED] was not there. They both advised me that M [REDACTED] stopped by, and then walked away north on Downs Street.

I checked the area but could not locate M [REDACTED]. I then returned to 280 Novack and spoke to Marisa. Marisa stated M [REDACTED] came home. I asked Marisa where M [REDACTED] was and she said in her bedroom. I asked Marisa if it was ok for me to speak with her in her bedroom, and she said yes. I then knocked on M [REDACTED] bedroom door and asked if I could speak with her in her bedroom. M [REDACTED] said yes. M [REDACTED] stated her mother and her argued over a doctor appointment. M [REDACTED] stated her mother confuses her by telling her how she wants her to leave her house, but when she tries to find somewhere else to live her mother prevents her from doing so. M [REDACTED] stated she has a child custody court date approaching in May of 2022. M [REDACTED] stated she is also joining the Army when she turns 18 in January of 2023. M [REDACTED] stated her mother records her and lies about her, saying she needs to be committed for mental health issues. I advised M [REDACTED] to try her best to get along with her mother, and explained that when she's 18 she can move out on her own. I then cleared from this residence.

This incident was recorded on my L3 body worn camera, # 211610454. No further action taken by this officer.
