THIS AGREEMENT, made and entered into by and between the Borough of South Plainfield, (hereinafter referred to as the “Employer”) and the South Plainfield Local 100 Superior Officer (PBA SO), (hereinafter referred to as the “Employee”) is to be effective as of January 1, 2021.

The Employer and the Employee do hereby agree to the terms of this Agreement as hereinafter specifically set forth:

I. RECOGNITION

1. The Employer does hereby recognize the South Plainfield PBA Local 100 Superior Officer (PBA SO) as the sole and exclusive bargaining agency for all Sergeants, Lieutenants and Captains, in the Borough of South Plainfield, in all matters pertaining to rates of pay, wages or salaries, hours of work, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment as permitted under law.
2. The provisions of this Agreement shall apply to all accretions to the bargaining unit. Specifically excluded from the terms and conditions of this Agreement, are Patrolmen, Senior Patrolmen (including Detectives) and other personnel employed by the Borough of South Plainfield now working or to be working, in its police department.

II. EMPLOYER'S RIGHTS

1. The Employer shall retain all rights of management and supervision resulting from or pertaining to the operation of the police department and its members as provided by law.
2. The Employee recognizes the Employer's rights, duties and authority to manage and control the affairs of the Borough of South Plainfield pursuant to the authority conferred on it by the State of New Jersey and all applicable local, state, and federal laws. The Employer retains and reserves all rights of management and control not limited by this Agreement and including, but not limited to firing, promoting, discipline, layoff, transfer of all Employees covered by this Agreement, together with assignment and designation of all such work to be performed by said Employees.
3. Nothing herein contained shall be intended to abrogate, modify or in any way conflict with any rights available to the Employer and/or Employee under the provisions of the New Jersey Employer-Employee Relations Act.

IV. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. PURPOSE.

(a) The purpose of this procedure is to secure, at the lowest possible level, an equitable solution to the problems which may arise affecting the terms and conditions of employment of Employees.

(b) Nothing herein shall be considered as limiting the right of any Employee having a grievance, to discuss the matter informally with an appropriate representative of the Employer, within the presence of a PBA representative appointed by the President of the PBA, if requested by the Employee involved.

2. DEFINITION.

The term grievance as used herein means any dispute and/or controversy arising over the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the terms and conditions of this agreement or regarding employment of the application of any rules, regulations, policies and/or ordinance which effect a working condition or actual working conditions and may be raised by the Employee or PBA on behalf of an individual Employee, group of Employees or the PBA itself. The right of the PBA to file such a grievance is at the option and within the discretion of the PBA and/or Employee and may be with or without the consent of the individual Employee.

3. STEPS OF GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The following constitutes the sole and exclusive method for resolving grievances between the parties covered by this Agreement and shall be followed in its entirety unless any step is waived by mutual consent.

Step 1. The next higher superior officer of the unit, to which the Employee is attached, will attempt to find a mutually satisfactory solution to the grievance within three (3) working days. Failing a solution, the complaint accompanied by a written report on the matter prepared by the next higher superior officer of the unit to which the Employee is attached must be forwarded through the chain of command to the superior officer in charge of the section to which the Employee is assigned.

Step 2. The superior officer in charge of the section will attempt to find a mutually satisfactory solution to the grievance within ten (10) working days. Failing a solution, the complaint accompanied by a written report on the matter by the superior officer in charge of the section to which the Employee is attached must be forwarded through the chain of command to the Chief of Police.

Step 3. The Chief of Police will attempt to find a mutually satisfactory solution to the grievance within ten (10) working days. Failing a solution, the complaint accompanied by a written report on the matter by the Chief of Police must be forwarded to the Public Safety Committee of the Borough of South Plainfield.

Step 4. The Public Safety Committee will then consider and formally act on the complaint within thirty (30) days. The Public Safety Committee may, or may not, at their discretion consult with and/or place the matter before the entire Council of the consult with and/or place the matter before the entire Council of the Borough of South Plainfield if it deems necessary. Since it is intended that most, if not all, grievances can and should be settled without the necessity of reference to the Public Safety Committee, no grievance will be heard or considered by the Public Safety Committee which has not first passed through the above described steps.

4. SUBMISSION.

Employees' grievances shall be presented on forms prepared by the South Plainfield PBA. The grievance procedure, as contained in this contract, shall be strictly adhered to. It is understood that Employees must sign their individual grievances. Grievances without an Employee's signature shall not be accepted or processed.

5. ARBITRATION.

- (a) If no settlement of the grievances has been reached between the parties, either one or both may move the grievance to arbitration within thirty (30) days of receiving the answer from the Mayor and Council.
- (b) Any party wishing to move a grievance to arbitration shall notify the Public Employment Relations Commission that they are moving a grievance to arbitration and request that a list of arbitrators be furnished to the Employer and Employee.

V. WORK SCHEDULE

The parties agree to negotiate changes in the work schedule absent the Employer's demonstrated need to effectuate a significant managerial prerogative.

VI. RATES OF PAY

1. The Employees shall be classified in accordance with skills used and shall be paid not less than the minimum for such classification in accordance with the table of job classifications and rates of pay in the following schedule expressly made part of this Agreement. Such wages shall be incorporated in the wage and salary ordinance to be adopted by the Employer and subject to the terms thereof.

	2021	2022	2023	2024
Sergeants	$138,552	$142,015	$145,566	$149,205
Lieutenants	$155,177	$159,057	$163,033	$167,109
Captains	$173,798	$178,142	$182,596	$187,161

2. It is intended that a minimum of thirteen percent (13%) spread between the rank of class "A" patrolmen and Sergeant. It is intended that a minimum of twelve percent (12%) spread between Sergeant, and the superior ranks of Lieutenant and Captain shall be maintained through the contract period.

VII. LONGEVITY

All Employees hired prior to January 1, 2011 shall be entitled to longevity payments in accordance with the following schedule:

YEARS OF SERVICE TO THE BOROUGH OF SOUTH PLAINFIELD	PERCENT
5	2.5%
10	4.5%
15	7%
20	8%

Employees hired on or after January 1, 2011 shall not be entitled to longevity payments upon promotion to Superior Officer ranking.

VIII. COMPENSATION FOR OVERTIME

1. Each Employee shall be compensated for overtime worked above the normal tour of duty required to be worked, and such compensation shall be paid at the rate of time and one half the officer's hourly rate of pay.
2. Overtime worked will be paid in the next succeeding pay period, unless at the request of the Employee, said overtime will be applied to the Accumulated Time Off (ATO) bank.

Accumulated time off is calculated at the rate of one and one half hours times the hours worked, which is not compensated by payment. The ATO bank is capped at 480 hours ATO. Any Employee who has reached the maximum of 480 hours ATO shall be prohibited from accumulated additional hours, and shall be paid for said in excess of 480 hours.

3. In the event an Employee is called to work on his non-scheduled time (including, but not limited to, off-duty court or administrative appearances, police schools, firearm's qualifications, special training, etc.) the Employee shall be guaranteed a minimum call out pay. Overtime shall be calculated at the rate of time and one half the Employee's hourly rate of pay. The minimum time of call-out shall be (4) four hours.
4. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the overtime rate shall not exceed that which is allowed under the appropriate statute including the provisions of the Fair Labor Standard Act, if applicable, in such case made and provided.

IX. ENTITLEMENT ON ACCOUNTABILITY OF DEATH OR PERMANENT DISABILITY

To the extent permitted by law, the Employer will pay a sum equivalent to six (6) calendar months of pay to any Employee who dies or is permanently disabled, as the result of injuries sustained in the line of duty. Such payments shall be in addition to any other benefits payable to such Employee. The Employer shall not be obligated to make any such payment as herein above provided if the death or injury was intentionally self-inflicted. In the event payment pursuant to this paragraph must be made on a "pension" or time basis in order to comply with the applicable law, the sum total of the Employer's payments shall not exceed a sum equivalent to six (6) calendar months pay.
