Ron Sheehy Since you like stats so much and like to post stories about blacks....white men represent 29% of the US population but make up close to 80% of convictions for the production, distribution, AND consumption of illegal images and videos involving minors. As well as crimes against children. ChatGPT or Google That! That's why your women barely can or want to procreate with you and from here to Europe you're going extinct. I would worry about that if I were you. Pretty soon you won't have enough people to populate these all white towns or enough racist cops to harass Black people all day.

Ron Sheehy You sir are hilarious.
So the DOJ and FBI are inflating the white crime rate statistics now? When did these institutions start this practice? So the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children is in on it too? I guess all of those pe*#phile mug shots are fake as well. The truth is that your particular demographic has a clear and extensive history of sheer barbarity around the world. You talk about people being able to walk down the street without being robbed or murdered? You think you are entitled to all the world's resources and human capital. You lie, murder, r@pe and pillage everywhere, and then try to run back and hide in little enclaves like Clark by yourselves and act like nothing happened. No Propaganda, fake tropes or talking points can change the truth.

If you have lived in Roselle, Linden even Cranford, you know the truth about Clark, NJ. Real estate agents have redlined the district of Clark to keep black, brown people from renting and buying homes. The police were and are notorious for stopping black and brown people going through Clark. All mayors of Clark knew and know this. This is Old news, brought to the surface via social media as new news.

Adam Chadderton some of the cops in Clark are my classmates. They aren't black but I'm sure they have strong opinions. I don't think that the black officers should be responsible for speaking on a town that has been racist since before I was even born. Shoot, before some of those cops were born. We are around the same age!

Adam Chadderton

Amber Barrier "I'm sure they have strong opinions" tf does that even mean? I think going to school in a racist sundown town has affected your brain because it seems like everyone you went to school with is fucking retarded. Tell those pigs you went to school with to use their cop powers to protect citizens and actually show the racists what they deserve. They won't do that though because they're all a bunch of inbred nazis. Those "friends" of yours would happily suck Hitlers cock before shaking hands with a black man.

Fuck those racist pigs and fuck you for trying to normalize racism.

11:12 on Jan 22, 2026 UTC (hidden)

Adam Chadderton

Amber Barrier those black officers have a responsibility to the community. By remaining silent, they are supporting the sundown town policies. By backing the blue and supporting their fellow officers, they're just adding another loop to the noose of racism that has strangled this town. They shouldn't have to carry that responsibility, i know thats not fair. But likewise those black officers could have tried to change things instead of taking a paycheck for perpetrating them.

Amber Barrier

Adam Chadderton I appreciate this conversation. As a black resident for almost 30 years , do you feel as though I am responsible to be the voice? Those officers , myself and those before me didn't tie this noose. Potentially loosing our jobs for a battle that isnt ours to fight is a bit unfair. This town and its residents wouldn't help take care of those officers if they lost their jobs. They wouldn't look out for me for being brave. Right down the street from my highschool, there's a house littered with Trump pictures and "vote for trump" signs . There are a few of those homes here . The message is clear. The kind citizens of this town can stand up to THEIR peers and be the face of change. The little sprinkles of black people that live here would be up against a population of over 10k. Just to be clear. I think your heart is in the right place. The officers I know WOULDN'T stay silent while their peers abuse people.. ALSO id like to highlight that i strongly beleive the clark pd hired them to change the negative stereotypes here.
